

Team Maryland Hockey Announces Academic Partnership with Archbishop Curley High School

Odenton, MD - September 12, 2026 - Team Maryland Hockey is proud to announce a strategic partnership with Archbishop Curley High School, creating an exceptional opportunity for elite student-athletes to pursue excellence both on the ice and in the classroom.

As one of the Mid-Atlantic's premier Tier I AAA hockey organizations, Team Maryland Hockey has built a reputation for developing players who aspire to compete at the junior, collegiate, and professional levels. Through this partnership, Team Maryland and Archbishop Curley High School will provide student-athletes with an outstanding educational experience while continuing to develop them in one of the nation's most competitive hockey environments.

The partnership reflects a shared commitment to developing young men of character, leadership, and integrity. By combining Team Maryland's elite hockey development model with Archbishop Curley's tradition of academic excellence and Franciscan values, student-athletes will have the opportunity to reach their full potential both academically and athletically.

"This partnership represents a tremendous opportunity for Team Maryland Hockey and the families we serve," said Peter LeBoutillier, Associate Hockey Director of Team Maryland. "As our program continues to grow and attract players from across the country and around the world, it is essential that we provide an exceptional educational pathway alongside elite hockey development. Archbishop Curley High School is the ideal partner because they share our commitment to developing young men of character, leadership, and excellence. Together, we're creating an environment where our student-athletes can thrive both on the ice and in the classroom."

The partnership strengthens Team Maryland Hockey by providing current and future players with access to one of Maryland's most respected college-preparatory schools. Families seeking a premier hockey experience no longer have to choose between elite athletic development and an outstanding education; they can have both.

For local student-athletes, this collaboration provides an opportunity to remain close to home while receiving a first-class education and competing at the highest levels of youth hockey. For players relocating from other states or countries, Archbishop Curley offers a welcoming school community where they can excel academically, build lifelong friendships, and become part of a supportive environment that values personal growth as much as athletic success.

As Team Maryland Hockey continues to expand its national and international reach, this partnership reinforces the organization's commitment to providing every player - regardless of where they call home - with the resources, mentorship, and educational opportunities necessary to succeed in hockey and in life.

Nicholas Brownlee, Vice President of Enrollment, Archbishop Curley High School, welcomed the new partnership.

"Archbishop Curley High School is excited to welcome Team Maryland Hockey into our school community. This partnership reflects our shared commitment to developing young men who strive for excellence in the classroom, in competition, and in their communities. We look forward to providing student-athletes from Maryland, across the United States, and around the world with an educational experience rooted in our Franciscan values while supporting them as they pursue their academic and athletic goals."

Together, Team Maryland Hockey and Archbishop Curley High School look forward to building a lasting relationship that prepares student-athletes for success long after their playing careers have ended. By combining elite hockey development with outstanding academics, faith, leadership, and character formation, the partnership establishes a unique pathway for young men seeking to achieve excellence in every aspect of their lives.
