I think Alberto's is handling the pandemic well. There are stickers on the ground showing where to stand, and the service never disappoints. All employees know regular customers and even make conversation - very thoughtful! I always get a Cypress Burrito and Fries with Cheese when I visit. The burrito was still delicious the day after! I'd recommend this place to anyone looking for good Mexican food in OC. I got the fajitas plate, and everything was great except the guac wasn't my favorite - it was a bit too tangy for me. I went around midnight on a Sunday, and they had a long line going through the drive-thru but served everyone quickly. Every time I go there, I can't wait to come back! The food is very good and reasonably priced, made fresh daily. You can find something to eat that's good for $5 bucks too. Get there early because the lines are out the door by lunchtime. Get ready for a flavor explosion! Our Carne Asada Burrito is a game-changer, combining smoky, tangy, savory, and creamy flavors with a mix of textures from tender beef, creamy beans, soft tortillas, and fresh toppings. It's like a taste sensation that'll remind you of authentic Mexican cuisine. This California burrito takes traditional burritos to the next level, loaded with guacamole, carne asada, French fries, cheese, pico de gallo, and sour cream. Our Adobada Tacos are a must-try! Marinated pork is cooked to perfection on a vertical spit, resulting in tender and juicy meat with a crispy exterior. Served on a soft corn tortilla with diced onions, fresh cilantro, lime wedges, and sometimes a slice of pineapple, it's a harmonious blend of flavors. Rolled Tacos are another highlight! Well-seasoned meat inside a crunchy tortilla, topped with guacamole, shredded cheese, sour cream, and salsa or pico de gallo, makes for an indulgent experience. Fresh tomatoes, onions, and cilantro add a burst of freshness, leaving you wanting more. Super Nachos are the ultimate treat! High-quality ingredients come together in a delicious combination of savory, creamy, crunchy, and spicy elements, making for a satisfying meal. Our Chile Verde is a crowd-pleaser! Tender pork, authentic green sauce, and fresh ingredients make this dish a must-try. It's often served with Mexican rice, refried beans, and warm tortillas, making it the perfect combo. And finally, our Combo Burrito is a winner! A crispy Beef Taco and savory Enchilada come together in a great mix of textures and flavors, all thanks to fresh and high-quality ingredients like rich enchilada sauce, seasoned beef, and cheese. Shredded lettuce, diced tomatoes, Shredded cheese elevates this dish with a burst of freshness and tanginess, making it a complete meal. This classic Mexican combo often pairs well with Mexican rice and refried beans, which further enhances the flavor. I believe this rich and robust dish, accompanied by balanced sides, embodies the essence of Mexican cuisine and provides a fine dining experience.
