

10 DOWNING STREET
LONDON SW1A 2AA

THE PRIME MINISTER

28 April 2025

Dear all,

I am writing to introduce you to the Partnerships Unit in Number 10. I hope that this will be an opportunity for you to engage with this Government on our shared aims.

Throughout my career, I have consistently championed partnership working. During my time as Director of Public Prosecutions, I saw first-hand the impact of strong partnerships. When we come together, we can tackle challenges more effectively and better serve our communities.

Partnership is key to the Government working at its best, and the only way to deliver meaningful change. I want the whole of Government to see this not as a tactic or a strategy, but as a fundamental approach.

The national missions I set out in our Plan for Change are not for Government alone, and they cannot be delivered by Government alone. They are for the whole of society and can only be achieved by working in partnership with you, with businesses, entrepreneurs and investors, trade unions, civil society, faith groups and people across the country.

This is why I set up the Partnerships Unit in 10 Downing Street; to bring your expertise and experience into the heart of government, to deliver security and renewal for our country. Your contribution is vital for delivering our missions and strengthening public trust. So, I want to have an ongoing conversation with you, for you to put your fingerprints on what we are doing.

The Partnerships Unit exists to support that, cultivating partnerships that are built on a foundation of collaboration and trust. They can assist your engagement with departments across Government and use the convening power of Downing Street to help cut through silos and reach across sectors. You can reach the team at partnerships@no10.gov.uk.

I look forward to continuing to work with you, so that together we can deliver the change this country needs.

All best wishes,

*Rees
