

SAVE THE DATE*DINNER SYMPOSIUM*PRECISION IN GI ONCOLOGY: ADVANCING CARE IN PANCREATIC CANCER AND CHOLANGIOCARCINOMA 26 SEPTEMBER 2025, FRIDAY 6.30PM - 9.30PM CALI, ASCOTT RAFFLES PLACE SINGAPORE (2 FINLAYSON GREEN, LEVEL 2, SINGAPORE 049247)*JOIN US FOR AN EXCLUSIVE SESSION

WITH PROFESSOR GERARD PRAGER AS HE SHARES THE LATEST GLOBAL EVIDENCE AND CLINICAL INSIGHTS SHAPING THE FUTURE OF GI ONCOLOGY.

SPEAKER*PROF GERARD PRAGER

Prof Prager is the director of the GI Cancer Program of the Department of Medical Oncology at the Medical University of Vienna and Comprehensive Cancer Center, Vienna. He leads the Unit for Precision Medicine in Cancer and is an associate professor of medicine, board certified for internal medicine, hematology, and medical oncology. Prof Prager graduated from the Medical School of the University of Vienna and completed his postdoctoral training at the University of California, San Diego, USA and was a visiting professor at the Norris Cancer Center, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, USA in 2011. Prof Prager's main research interests focus on traditional research and (tumor-) angiogenesis and his work was honored by more than 20 international awards and published in highly renowned international journals. Prof Prager is also a member of the ESMO Scientific Committee.

REGISTER HERE*CHAIR*DR CHOO SU PIN

Curie Oncology
Singapore

This interactive session will explore precision-driven strategies to optimise outcomes in Pancreatic Cancer and Cholangiocarcinoma from evolving first-line standards to the promise of targeted therapies in rare mutations. Gain practical takeaways you can apply immediately in your clinical practice.