Bludorn Beer List

The first fermentation of grains happened thousands of years ago in Mesopotamia. Since then beer has been fully ingrained in human culture and development.

We are fully aware of our historic connection with the bubbly elixer and offer a list of beers that will pair immensely well with the current food menu. There are locally made sessionable features as well as classic and beloved names on draft.

You will find some flagship Bavarian buddies as well as odd newcomers, all with the goal of offering a catalogue that we feel will make your meal complete.

Cheers!

We are all big fans of agave distillates here at Bludorn the amount of love and history that goes into a bottle of Espadin, the legacy behind a batch of Pechuga, the hunt for a Tobala, ripe and ready to cook, are all stories that one can almost taste in a pour.

Agave has such a wide variety of flavor profiles that it lends itself to easily pair with food! Here at Bludorn we offer a 1 ounce or 2 pour of our agave selection to give our guests more accesibility to trying new varietals or to revisit some favorites. Salud!
