KINECTORY CULTURE

We believe every child is a gift, has a gift, and deserves the opportunity to use their gift. We are so excited for Kinectory Camp adventures this summer and seeing all the ways that our campers grow, experience Jesus, make new friends, and discover new giftings!

BEHAVIOR COMMITMENTS

- Campers are required to conduct themselves in a manner that honors the Lord. This means respecting teachers and other students. Foul language and inappropriate gestures are not allowed. We model and encourage campers to love God, love each other, imitate Christ, and be kingdom builders in all that they do.
- When necessary, breaks from activities may be used, as well as loss of other privileges. If an issue arises that requires a more serious disciplinary response, parents may be contacted to come pick up their camper for the remainder of the day.
