Robinvale Campus – Multi-purpose Service - Fees and Charges

Residential Aged Care at Robinvale Campus is provided as part of our Multi-Purpose Service (MPS) arrangement and the fee structure differs to Commonwealth subsidised care and services. The amount you pay towards the cost of your room depends on your means assessment. Your calculated costs may differ from below, but will not exceed it. If you would like to find out if you will be asked to pay an accommodation payment, use the Aged care home fee estimator | My Aged Care located on My Aged Care Website and confirm if you need to complete a Means Assessment with Services Australia or Department of Veterans' Affairs.

NOTE: From 1 November 2025 all new Residents of Multi-purpose Services can be charged a Specialist Aged Care Program Fee. When invoiced this will be referred to as Basic Daily Fee. The rate is based on 85% of the base rate of the basic age pension (worked out on a per day basis.) The Current Rate is $66.80 per day.

Accommodation Payment

You will only be charged an Accommodation Payment if

- Your means assessment indicates you must pay an accommodation payment. Your means are determined via a pre-entry means assessment from Services Australia (or Department of Veterans' Affairs).
- If not enough information or you elect not to disclose your mean you may be charged an Accommodation Payment.

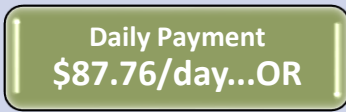

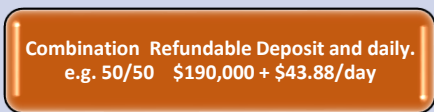

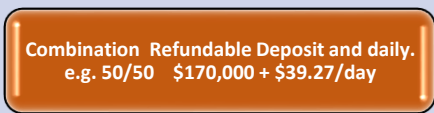

NOTE: Multi-purpose Services are not able not charge Accommodation Payments if you are assessed as eligible for Commonwealth Government assistance with accommodation costs. This means a Multi-purpose Service cannot charge an Accommodation Contribution

If you are eligible to pay an Accommodation Payment, you can choose to pay by a Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD), a Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP) or a combination of both. A Refundable Accommodation Deposit is paid as a lump sum amount. A Daily Accommodation Payment accrues daily and paid periodically, for example monthly. A combination payment includes both a partial lump sum and daily payments. You have 28 days after entering to decide how you want to pay your accommodation payment and up to 6 months to pay any lump sum component. If you have nominated to pay a lump sum amount you will be charged interest at the Maximum Permissible (MPIR) rate until the deposit has been paid.

Refundable Accommodation Retention applies to everyone who first enters residential aged care on or after 1 November 2025 and pays by Refundable Deposit (RAD) in full or in part. Under this arrangement, RDHS will keep a small portion of each new RAD. The amount retained is calculated at a rate of 2% per annum. This rate is applied to the daily RAD balance, with the amount deducted regularly. After 5 years, no more retention amounts will be deducted.

All fees and charges must be agreed to prior to entry and outlined in your Accommodation and Services Agreement.
