Welcome Message

Feroz Hundal
Mohtamim Atfal

The countdown has begun! In just a short time, Atfal from all over the country will gather for our National Ijtema. A weekend packed with learning, fun, friendship, and the blessings of being together for the sake of Allah.

But great Ijtemas don't just happen. They're built on the effort we put in before we arrive. Read up on your Atfal syllabus, polish your Tilawat and Nazm, practice for all the academic and sports competitions, and most importantly, pray that Allah blesses our Ijtema with success.

When we all gather at Ijtema, it will be a time of learning, worship, and competition, but also a time of friendship, joy, and inspiration.

You will meet Atfal from different states, share meals, compete side by side, and listen to speeches that can shape the course of your life. These moments are precious as they will never come back in exactly the same way.

So I urge you, don't just wait for Ijtema to arrive, work for it. Prepare for it. Pray for it. Enter it ready to give your very best. This way, when the final Ijtema day comes and we return home, we will carry with us not only memories but also the spiritual strength to live as true servants of Islam.

Let's make this year's National Atfal Ijtema one we'll never forget!
