Crown and Ivy is all about being flirty, modern, and bold - Southern preppy at its finest! We had a blast trying out their clothes and can't wait to share our faves with you! I rocked the Ponte Leggings and loved them! I also tried on the Solid Cowl Neck Sweater and Cross Back 2-Fer Sweater. The Polka Dot sweater was a close second, but the real showstopper was the Jersey Lace Peplum top in navy - it fit both me and Erica despite our size difference! I also tried on the elephant print vest and 3/4 Ruffle Neck Knit Top. In the end, I chose the Ponte Leggings and lace detail sweater for their comfort and style. I was immediately drawn in by the Crochet Peplum Blouse's unique design. The peplum detail added a touch of cuteness, while the relaxed fit made it comfortable to wear. I also fell in love with the Printed Ponte Top's checker style and flattering fit. The Side Button Sweater's functional buttons were a fun touch, making me consider purchasing it. The High Neck Lurex Dot Shirt's boho vibe, gold details, and ruffled high neck feature caught my eye. Although I was tempted to buy the Festive Gingham Shirt, I ultimately decided against it due to the approaching winter months. In the end, I chose the Cowl Neck Colorblock Sweater, which won me over with its soft material, comfortable fit, and striking colorblock design on the back. Of course, I also grabbed those jeans! The Low Side Slit Sweater was another must-have for me, thanks to its vibrant blue color and flattering side slits. I'm a big fan of Crown & Ivy! They offer unique details like printed liners and eye-catching back designs on their sweaters. Plus, they cater to a wide range of sizes, from petite to plus.
