A Truck Driver Subcontractor Agreement enables a contractor to hire a professional truck operator for transporting goods between locations. This agreement streamlines the process, allowing the contractor to focus on their core business while ensuring prompt product movement that meets industry standards. The agreement outlines the scope of services, compensation, and invoicing terms, as well as insurance, licensing, and certification requirements.

This Agreement is made by and between THOROUGHBRED DIRECT INTERMODAL SERVICES, INC. ("TDIS"), having its principal place of business at 5165 Campus Drive Suite 400 Plymouth Meeting, P A 19462, and _____ ("Contractor"), having its principal place of business at _____, to provide motor carrier service for TDIS under the terms and conditions specified herein. In furtherance of that object, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, mutually agree as follows:

This Agreement shall become effective _____ and will remain effective for a period of sixty (60) months unless sooner cancelled on thirty (30) days prior written notice by either party for any reason or for no reason.

This Agreement is terminated at the end of the initial term unless renewed by TDIS, which renewal must be provided at least thirty days in advance of the termination date. Termination of this Agreement shall not release either party from any liability which either party incurs pursuant to this Agreement, and which arose hereunder prior to such termination.

Contractor represents and warrants that it is a party to the Uniform Intermodal Interchange Agreement ("UIA"), and has valid addenda to the UIA in effect with all class I railroads. TDIS authorizes Contractor and its qualified drivers to move TDIS controlled and/or owned equipment (loaded or empty) from the terminal premises of TDIS or its agents to another location, facility or place of business and to return the TDIS controlled and/or owned equipment to the same terminal or to another location as directed by TDIS. Contractor may not use TDIS controlled and/or owned equipment for any purpose except for the movement of TDIS shipments and empty repositioning. Contractor's use of the TDIS controlled and/or owned equipment is subject to the provisions of the TDIS Rules Circular.

Contractor shall maintain all necessary authority, and shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations and rules, including without limitation those of the Surface Transportation Board, the Department of Transportation, and any governing state authorities. Contractor's drivers shall be competent, able, properly licensed, and shall meet all Department of Transportation qualifications, including medical, drug and alcohol standards.

Contractor agrees to provide, on demand by TDIS, motor carrier services to meet TDIS's distinct service needs, as described in Addendum 1, under the conditions, terms and for the compensation shown in that Addendum, which may be amended from time to time in writing by
