

The Goat

Perched along Llandudno's picturesque promenade, The Goat Restaurant and Bar takes its name from the town's most iconic residents – the wild Kashmiri goats that have roamed the Great Orme for over a century.

These remarkable animals first arrived in the early 19th century, originally imported from Kashmir for their luxurious wool. After impressing Queen Victoria herself, some of these royal goats eventually found their way to Llandudno through Major General Sir Savage Mostyn. The spirited creatures ultimately escaped to the Great Orme, where they've thrived for generations, becoming beloved symbols of the town. They famously made international headlines during the 2020 pandemic when they reclaimed Llandudno's empty streets.

Opened in May 2024, The Goat celebrates this unique local heritage while offering a modern dining experience with spectacular bay views. We source the finest North Welsh ingredients – local seafood, seasonal produce, and quality Welsh meats – transforming them into creative, seasonal dishes.

The Goat aims to reflect Llandudno's character – adventurous, welcoming, and connected to its surroundings. We're making our mark on the local dining scene while honouring what makes this special coastal town unique.
