Ord Minnett is an Australian owned advice and investment services firm.

We offer financial advice and investment management for individuals, families, businesses and organisations, enabling them to protect and grow their wealth.

A collective approach

Ryan Bamford and John Ferrier take a disciplined, client-focused approach to wealth management, combining strategic advice with personalised service. They work closely with clients to understand their financial objectives, risk tolerance, and long-term aspirations, developing tailored investment solutions designed to deliver sustainable outcomes. By combining extensive market knowledge, portfolio management expertise, and a commitment to clear communication, they help clients navigate changing market conditions with confidence and make informed financial decisions. Their focus is on building trusted, long-term relationships that support clients through every stage of their financial journey.

About the team

Together, Ryan and John bring more than 40 years of combined experience in financial advice, stockbroking, and wealth management. Their careers span leading financial services firms, providing them with broad experience across investment markets, portfolio construction, strategic planning, and private wealth advice. They are passionate about helping individuals, families, and businesses achieve their financial goals through practical, tailored solutions. Ryan and John are committed to delivering high-quality advice, building lasting client relationships, and providing clarity and confidence in an increasingly complex investment landscape.

Areas of expertise

Ryan and John provide expertise across wealth management, investment strategy, stockbroking, portfolio management, asset allocation, superannuation, and retirement planning. They work with clients to develop tailored investment portfolios aligned to individual goals, risk profiles, and financial circumstances. Their combined experience enables them to provide strategic advice on long-term wealth creation, portfolio construction, market opportunities, and risk management. With a focus on disciplined investing and evidence-based decision making, they help clients preserve and grow wealth while adapting to changing market conditions and evolving financial needs.

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Business, Monash University

Background

After graduating from Monash University, John began his career in financial services, gaining experience across a range of finance-related roles that provided a strong foundation in investment markets and client advice.

In 2004, he joined Macquarie and progressed to a Financial Adviser role in 2006. During his decade with the firm, he advised private clients on tailored investment strategies and portfolio solutions aligned with their financial objectives and risk profiles.

John later spent five years with Taylor Collison, further developing his expertise in private wealth management, portfolio construction and management, asset allocation and long-term investment strategy.

Since joining Ord Minnett in 2019, John has continued to provide strategic, client-focused advice with an emphasis on disciplined investing and long-term wealth creation. He works closely with clients to understand their objectives, risk tolerance and broader financial circumstances, delivering clear, practical advice to help them navigate changing markets and achieve their financial goals.
