

Grafana Cheatsheet

Accessing Grafana

http://localhost:3000

Default URL for accessing Grafana UI (default port 3000)

http://your-server-ip:3000

Access Grafana on a remote server

Authentication

Default login

admin/admin (first-time login)

API key

Create in UI: Configuration > API Keys

Dashboard Management

Create dashboard

Click '+' icon > 'Create Dashboard'

Import dashboard

Click '+' icon > 'Import'

Star dashboard

Click star icon on dashboard to favorite it

Dashboard settings

Click gear icon in dashboard view

Panel Operations

Add panel

Click 'Add panel' button in dashboard

Edit panel

Click panel title > Edit

Duplicate panel

Click panel title > More > Duplicate

Delete panel

Click panel title > More > Remove

Query & Visualization

Query editor

Available when editing a panel

Time range selector

Top-right of dashboard

Refresh dashboard

Click refresh icon or set auto-refresh

Template variables

Dashboard settings > Variables

Data Source Management

Add data source

Configuration > Data Sources > Add data source

Test connection

Click 'Save & Test' button when configuring data source

Default data source

Mark as default in data source settings

Alerting

Create alert rule

Alerting > Alert rules > New alert rule

View alert status

Alerting > Alert rules

Silence alert

Alerting > Silences > New silence

User Management

Add user

Configuration > Users > Invite

Edit user permissions

Configuration > Users > select user

Create team

Configuration > Teams > New team

CLI Commands

grafana-cli plugins install [plugin-id]

Install a plugin

grafana-cli plugins list-remote

List available plugins

grafana-cli plugins update-all

Update all plugins