When identity theft occurs, you're left facing countless hours dealing with banks, credit bureaus, credit card companies, police, DMV, and more. No matter how your personal data was compromised, we can help.

Reclaim your identity and restore your credit

While there are many services promising to help prevent your information from being stolen in the first place, once fraud has occurred, you're typically on your own. This is where identity theft protection can help.

With Ovation's identity theft protection, you'll get

- Thorough damage assessment
- Access to a consumer fraud specialist who works with your creditors
- Up to $25,000 in reimbursed expenses, including attorney's fees, lost wages, and more
- Managed repair and monitoring of credit
- Credit restored to pre-fraud condition
