DETAILED UPDATES

| SCOPE | LEVEL OF IMPACT | APPLICABLE TO |
|---|---|---|
| CSSF published a communication on the feedback report on ESMA Common Supervisory Action on sustainability risks and disclosures | | |

| SUMMARY/ MAIN POINTS |

Scope: 30 Luxembourg IFMs assessed under ESMA's CSA (2023–2024)

Key Findings:

Entity-Level SFDR:
- Remuneration policies include sustainability but lack detail;
- Engagement and international standards references need more substance.

Risk Management:
- Policies updated, but coverage of Article 6 funds and asset classes (e.g. derivatives) is patchy;
- Reporting and data quality controls often missing.

Product-Level SFDR:
- Sustainable investment definitions vary; DNSH and governance pillars underused
- Periodic disclosures must align with precontractual claims

| On 1 October 2025 the European Banking Authority published its 2026 Work Programme | |  |

SUMMARY/ MAIN POINTS

Strategic Priorities for 2026:

- Rulebook Development: Enhance resilience, sustainability, and efficiency of the Single Market;
- Risk Assessment Tools: Improve data, methodologies, and supervisory analysis;
- Innovation Oversight: Strengthen technological capacity across stakeholders.

Efficiency Actions:

- Reduce reporting burden for financial institutions;
- Simplify Level 2 & 3 regulatory products;
- Improve EBA's internal processes and contribution to EU prudential framework;
- Ensure proportionality and avoid fragmentation of the Single Rulebook.

| On 17 October the FCA published Primary Market Bulletin 58 concerning guidance for sponsors and new rules on complex financial histories and significant financial commitments in prospectuses | |  |

SUMMARY/ MAIN POINTS

Key Points:

New Technical Note TN/638.1
This note provides guidance on how issuers should disclose complex financial histories and significant financial commitments in UK prospectuses. It clarifies when additional financial information is required, particularly in cases involving acquisitions, restructurings, or binding agreements that materially affect the issuer's business.

Amended Technical Note TN/710.2
This revision strengthens expectations for sponsor firms, emphasizing their responsibility to ensure issuers comply with the Listing Rules. It highlights the importance of due diligence, independence, and escalating concerns to the FCA when necessary.
