

TrainCan: BASICS.fst Food Safety Certification Summary Chart

DELIVERY MODE	TEACHING	ASSESSMENT	ASSESSMENT RESULTS	CLASS SIZE	FUNDS REQUIRED	HOW TO SIGN UP
Online Self-Paced Available anywhere in Canada	Students take the online course remotely at their own pace. Students will have access to the click-through presentation slides and videos.	Once students complete the online course, an online webcam exam is unlocked.	Students will be notified with the results immediately. Certificate can be downloaded within 24 hours.	None	$37 per student	Student can purchase course on TrainCan Campus portal . TrainCan will email student login information within the same day.
Online Instructor-Led Available anywhere in Canada	Students attend full-day lecture online via Zoom videoconferencing platform with other students. Students will have access to an instructor who will teach the course materials through presentation slides.	After the lecture is completed, the instructor will email student their individual PIN and password to access their online webcam exam. Exam can be completed on the day of class or at the student's own time.	Students will be notified of the results immediately. Certificate can be downloaded within 24 hours.	15-25 students	Less than 15 students: Existing Second Harvest Partner: $30 per student 15+ students: Existing Second Harvest Partner (host): $35 per student External Non-Profit: $40 per student	Less than 15 students: Non-profits will receive a notification through the Food Rescue App and/or an email from the Delivery & Pick-Up program when registration is available for drop-in sessions. Available to existing Second Harvest partners only. 15+ students: Please fill out our Private Food Safety Certification Request Form. Available to existing Second Harvest partners and external non-profits not in Second Harvest's network.
In-Person Instructor-Led Available at Second Harvest Office or preferred off-site location (only in GTA)	Students attend full-day lecture in-person with other students. Students will have access to an instructor who will teach the course materials through presentations slides, and a course book to borrow for the duration of class.	Students will complete a closed-book exam in-person at the end of class using their scantron.	Students can log on to the TrainCan website within 10 business days to download their certificate using their unique ID code.	15-25 students	Less than 15 students: Existing Second Harvest Partner: $30 per student 15+ students: Existing Second Harvest Partner (host): $35 per student External Non-Profit: $40 per student	Less than 15 students: Non-profits will receive a notification through the Food Rescue App and/or an email from the Delivery & Pick-Up program when registration is available for drop-in sessions. Available to existing Second Harvest partners only. 15+ students: Please fill out our Private Food Safety Certification Request Form. Available to existing Second Harvest partners and external non-profits not in Second Harvest's network.