Berg Hospitality, based in Houston, Tx. and run by its namesake Benjamin Berg, is known for operating a series of 19 independent eateries with 17 in Houston and 2 in the Dallas Fort Worth area including the steakhouse B&B Butcher's & Restaurant, French cuisine Annabelle Restaurant, Cuban cocktail bar Emilia's Havana, and Italian restaurant Trattoria Sofia. All are singular endeavors except for B&B Butcher's and Restaurant which has 2 locations.

Hence Berg Hospitality covers the culinary universe and, like several restaurant chains, has done an effective job of opening a wide range of specialties.

So skeptics might wonder why Berg Hospitality in late August 2024 introduced Buttermilk Baby in Houston, a fast-casual eatery, offering comfort food that specializes in buttermilk biscuits, fried chicken sandwiches and burgers, while serving as a franchisee for Carvel ice-cream, which is making its debut in Texas.
