The Supreme Court with James Santelle A Six-Part Series

Thursdays, June 4, and 11 | 1 p.m.
O'Donnell Room

Join us as we invite American attorney and former public prosecutor James Santelle to St. Camillus for a timely and engaging discussion series focused on the United States Supreme Court.

As the Court begins issuing some of its most significant decisions of the term, this Thursday afternoon series will explore key rulings, the issues behind them, and what they may mean for our country. With new decisions expected throughout early-June, each session will offer fresh insight and thoughtful conversation in response to developments as they unfold.

If you have an interest in current events, constitutional law, or simply enjoy meaningful discussion, this series promises to be both informative and engaging.

Bohemia & Beyond: A Journey through Central Europe Presented by John Nueberger

Monday, June 8 | 2 p.m. | Jelen Community Room

Travel through the heart of Central Europe with a special slideshow presentation featuring highlights from a recent tour of the Czech Republic, Slovakia, and Hungary. Explore historic cities, breathtaking architecture, local culture, and memorable experiences from this unforgettable journey through Bohemia and beyond. Join us for an afternoon of stories, photos, and travel inspiration.

The Lalumiere Project: Exploring Marquette's History and Legacy

Mondays, June 8, 15, & 22 | 10 a.m. | Jelen Community Room

Join us for a special three-part summer series featuring The Lalumiere Project, an engaging multimedia exploration of the history, growth, and enduring legacy of Marquette University. Through a collection of short documentary-style modules, participants will journey through Marquette's founding, student life, architectural development, sacred spaces, and trailblazing contributions to education and the greater community. Each session will include video presentations, conversation, and coffee fellowship as we celebrate the spirit and tradition of one of Milwaukee's most historic institutions.

The Space Program's Contribution to Medicine Speaker: Dennis Roscoe

Wednesday, June 10 | 2 p.m. | O'Donnell Room

Dr. Roscoe will discuss how the space program has contributed to personal health care and advancements in medical science. Innovations such as portable ultrasound technology, originally developed for use on the International Space Station, are now commonly used in hospitals and clinics worldwide. Aging research is just one of the many additional examples that will be explored during this presentation.

Sherwood Alpher

Monday, June 15 | 2 p.m. | O'Donnell Room

Enjoy an afternoon of live music with talented musician Sherwood Alpher. Sit back, relax, and enjoy a wonderful performance featuring familiar favorites, engaging stories, and musical entertainment, sure to brighten your day.

Short Story Group

“The Open Boat” by Stephen Crane

Tuesday, June 16 | 1 p.m. | Learning Studio

“The Open Boat” is a short story by Stephen Crane, first published in 1897, based on his own experience surviving a shipwreck off the coast of Florida. It follows four men—the correspondent, the oiler, the cook, and the captain—stranded in a small dinghy, battling the sea’s indifference as they struggle to reach shore. The story highlights themes of survival, camaraderie, and nature’s harsh, arbitrary power, culminating in the tragic, random death of the oiler as the others make it to land.

Afternoon Book Club

“The Stationery Shop” by Marjan Kamali

Wednesday, June 17 | 1 p.m. | Mansfelds Private Dining Room

“The Stationery Shop” by Marjan Kamali is a historical fiction novel about first love, loss, and fate, set in 1953 Tehran during political turmoil. It follows idealistic teenager Roya and her passionate romance with Bahman, which is tragically interrupted, forcing them onto separate paths for decades until a chance encounter offers an opportunity for reconciliation and answers. The story explores themes of memory, cultural identity, and enduring love, contrasting Roya’s life in Iran with her later life in America. It is known for its emotional depth and rich cultural detail.

Afternoon Book Club

July Pick

“Not a Happy Family” by Shari Lapena

“Not a Happy Family” is a 2021 domestic thriller by Shari Lapena about the wealthy Merton family, whose members are all suspects after the brutal murder of parents Fred and Sheila following a tense Easter dinner. The novel follows the three adult children—Catherine, Dan, and Jenna—as they inherit millions and turn on each other, while also exploring the dark secrets and resentments that have long plagued the family, making everyone a potential suspect, including the housekeeper and an aunt.

SENIOR DAY ZOO SAFARI

Tuesday, June 16 | 10 a.m. | E. Lobby

Get ready for a wild adventure at the Milwaukee County Zoo during the Senior Safari! Residents and staff will enjoy a fun-filled morning of animal exhibits, safari-themed excitement, and community connection in a unique setting.

The first 50 residents to sign up in the Life Enrichment Binder outside the Bistro will receive a free themed t-shirt, so be sure to sign up early!

After the safari, everyone is invited to the Jelen Room to relax, rehydrate, and enjoy cake together!
