

Gwen Flowers-Taylor

COMMISSIONER OF DISTRICT 1

About Gwen Flowers-Taylor

Commissioner Flowers-Taylor is a lifelong resident of Spalding County and a graduate of the Griffin-Spalding County School System. She graduated from Griffin High School in 1972 and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from the University of North Florida in Jacksonville in 1986. A proud veteran of the Vietnam era, Commissioner Flowers-Taylor served in the United States Army. Following her service, she traveled as an Army wife, living in Germany, Jacksonville, and Atlanta.

After returning to Griffin, she worked at Cooper Standard Products for six years before returning to school to study Surgical Technology at Flynt Technical College in Thomaston. She worked as a surgical assistant for Dr. Thomas Hopkins for seven years and is currently employed as a Registered Nurse at Spalding Regional Hospital. Commissioner Flowers-Taylor is a member of the Iris Charter Chapter of the ABWA, the American Legion, and attends St. John Lutheran Church in Griffin.

She is married to Donald W. Taylor and is proud to call District 1 in Spalding County her home.

Contact Information:

(770 377-8539 (Home)
(770) 467-4280 (Office)

gflowerstaylor@spaldingcounty.com