

Reginald Watts

COMMISSIONER OF DISTRICT 3

About Reginald Watts

Reginald Bernard Watts is a lifelong resident of Spalding County with deep roots and a strong commitment to his community. Commissioner Watts began his education at Griffin High School before continuing his studies at the University of West Georgia and Gordon College. As the Founder, CEO, and President of Urban Outreach Association Griffin Inc., he works tirelessly to improve lives throughout Spalding County, focusing on community empowerment and impactful outreach programs.

In addition to his nonprofit leadership, Commissioner Watts is a local entrepreneur and co-owner of a popular bakery that has become a staple in the community. He also serves as an associate minister at Rising Star Missionary Baptist Church, where he dedicates his time to spiritual growth and community service. In recognition of his extensive humanitarian work, Commissioner Watts was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from Global International Alliance (GIA), a testament to his dedication and service to others.

He is married to his high school sweetheart, Kizzy Watts, and they have four adult children.

Contact Information:

404-790-3982 (Home)
770-467- 4280 (Office)

rwatts@spaldingcounty.com