

Clay Davis III

COMMISSIONER OF DISTRICT 5

About Clay Davis III

Commissioner Claiborne (Clay) Davis represents Spalding County's 5th District, covering much of the northeast area. He also serves as Chairman of the Spalding Board of Commissioners. Commissioner Davis is committed to selfless service and improving the community for his constituents. A retired combat Infantry officer, Davis served 25 years in the military, achieving the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. His awards include the Combat Infantry Badge, two Bronze Stars, and an Air Medal. After retiring, he worked as a GS-15 Department of Army Civilian with the Army Installation Management Command, supporting 177 garrisons worldwide. Locally, Davis has served on several committees, including past Chairman of the Architectural Review, Property and Grounds, and Clubs and Activities Committees. At the Spalding level, he has held leadership roles as Chairman of the Board of Commissioners, Vice Chairman of Wellstar Regional Hospital, Vice Chair of the Spalding Board of Health, and Chairman of the Spalding County Water Authority, among others.

At the state level, Davis represents Georgia County Commissioners on the Georgia Opioid Settlement Advisory Commission and serves as Vice Chair of the Revenue and Finance Policy Council for the Association of County Commissioners. He has also represented county commissioners on a Senate Study Group.

Davis is married to his college sweetheart and has two children and two grandchildren. He states, "It is an honor to serve all citizens in Spalding County and help make it the best place to live, work, and play."
