Transfers from Málaga are only available in exceptional cases.

Alternatively, renting a car offers more flexibility, with parking available at the villa. A car is very useful in this remote area, as the neighbouring villages are also worth visiting. In addition, a hire car for the whole week is often cheaper than a shuttle.

WHAT OTHER HOSTS/GUESTS SAY

Marlen, Retreat Host

I've now been to Andalusia with Surf Spirit for the third time – and as always, it was simply wonderful! The entire House is designed with so much love that you feel welcome and completely comfortable from the very first moment. The atmosphere is warm, relaxed, and family-like. The rooms are lovely, clean, and cozy.

It almost feels like home. 😍 - Nina, Guest May 2025

An absolute recommendation! Truly an amazing experience that you'll want to repeat. The villa is beautiful and clean. The rooms are decorated with so much love down to the smallest detail – you immediately feel at home. For anyone still unsure: do it and go with the flow 😊 - Cathi, Guest June 2025

In November 2024, we hosted our first retreat with Surf Spirit at Villa Andalucia and we can highly recommend it. As studio owners and teachers, we loved having the entire Surf Spirit team on-site, allowing us to fully focus on teaching and our guests while they took care of everything else. It made the week wonderfully relaxing and unforgettable for us and our community. We'd host another retreat there anytime – especially because of the stunning yoga shala overlooking the sea and Morocco. Los Caños de Meca is the perfect winter destination with its beautiful scenery and mild temperatures.
