

KEEP this BETWEEN us.

You REMIND ME of some friends of mine.
Something tells me you'll get along well
my intuition never fails,

KEEPING something BETWEEN us carries
the weight of a secret.

AND a secret is always an invitation.

THE PHRASE DRAWS things closer.

it brings the BODY forward, works like a seam, a golden nail.

CELEBRATING encounters BETWEEN:

people and people.

people and places

people and objects

objects and places

objects and objects

ONE form calls another. time falls asleep on the surface of things, and what remains are beautiful memories.

Empty bottles or traces of rust.

I leave my country when the party begins
it made me think about the spontaneous
lasting encounters - Ana, Ze', Malu and Gus.
Four hours of celebration!

No acts, no acting. I present everything as it was, and as it always is.

Here I find birds, books, holes, bottles
friends and golden nails.

Ten days of long conversations

Long live / Viva longa YSASI

Welcome.
