

GOAL OF GROUP:

Facilitate conversations to help others live the life Jesus died and rose for them to live. Create a safe place, encourage authenticity, celebrate breakthroughs, and lead the way.

TABLE CONVERSATION QUESTIONS:

Get to know your group! No matter how long you've known one another, we encourage you to start with simpler prompts. Pick a question to discuss over a meal or the beginning of group to prioritize meaningful conversation before you dive into the material for this week.

START SMALL – What brought you joy this week?

GO DEEPER – What is something you're currently carrying that you could use prayer or encouragement for?

FACILITATOR GUIDE:

PRAY: Spend two minutes in silent prayer. After two minutes, have someone pray for your time together as a group.

READ: Nehemiah 8:1-6. Invite different group members to read the passage out loud, two or three times. Each time, use a different Bible translation to allow for the Spirit to highlight key points through different wordings and sentence structures.

Q1 – Take a moment to reflect on your experience with Sunday's reciting of God's Word. How were you compelled to worship through the reading of God's Word?

Q2 – When was the last time you remember having an unforgettable encounter with God through His Word? What were you reading, and what did the Lord reveal to you?

Q3 – In Nehemiah 8:5–6, we see God’s people respond to the reading of Scripture with worship and reverence. What expressions of worship are most familiar to you? What expressions make you the most uncomfortable? Why do you think that is?

Q4 – David Platt challenged us that the bar for Christianity in our culture is very low. What is the standard of discipleship in your life right now? What would it look like for you personally to raise the standard of what it means to follow Jesus?

Q5 – How do you approach the Word of God when you spend time with Him? Does your time in His Word lead you toward worship and an encounter with God, or does it often feel like a task? What might God be inviting you into as you grow in your hunger for His Word?

Q6 – Romans 12:2 calls us to be transformed by the renewing of our minds. What areas of your life are currently being shaped more by the culture around you than by the Word of God? What would it look like to let God’s Word reshape your thinking in that area?

THIS WEEK’S SCRIPTURE READING:

Each week, we will include Scripture readings that are meant to help you read through the Bible in one year. See this week’s Scripture readings below:

- Sept. 13 — Leviticus 1–5
- Sept. 14 — Leviticus 6–10
- Sept. 15 — Leviticus 11–15
- Sept. 16 — Leviticus 16–20
- Sept. 17 — Leviticus 21–25
- Sept. 18 — Leviticus 26–27; Numbers 1–3
- Sept. 19 — Numbers 4–8

Take time to sit with the Scriptures, return to them daily, and let them shape your prayers, questions, and conversations this week.

CHALLENGE:

- SCRIPTURE MEMORIZATION

Memorize Romans 12 this week. Break the chapter into the sections below and spend a few minutes each day reading each day's verses ten times, writing each day's verses ten times, and repeating the verses until you can say them without looking. At the end of the week, see if you can recite the entire chapter from memory.

- Day 1: Romans 12:1–3
- Day 2: Romans 12:4–6
- Day 3: Romans 12:7–9
- Day 4: Romans 12:10–12
- Day 5: Romans 12:13–15
- Day 6: Romans 12:16–18
- Day 7: Romans 12:19–21 + recite the whole chapter

As you memorize, ask the Lord to show you how these words are meant to shape the way you live, worship, and love others.
