

LEIGH ANNE HALES

Client Relations & Business Development Ambassador – Northern California
Global Leadership Alliance (GLA)

Leigh Anne Hales brings a dynamic and service-driven approach to her role as Client Relations and Business Development Ambassador for Northern California at Global Leadership Alliance (GLA). With a strong focus on creating exceptional client experiences, she combines passion, trust, and integrity to foster meaningful relationships and deliver high-value solutions to GLA's clients and partners.

A graduate of the University of San Francisco with a degree in Organizational Behavior, Leigh Anne offers a diverse professional background spanning real estate, finance, teaching, wellness, and business development. She has over 20 years of experience in real estate sales and finance, holding licensure with the California Department of Real Estate, and has excelled in roles including Loan Officer, Real Estate Agent, and Loan Processor. Additionally, she has spent 8 years in teaching and wellness coaching, specializing as a yoga instructor, trainer, mentor, and literacy tutor.

In her role with GLA, Leigh Anne integrates her holistic perspective with a strong commitment to client success and growth. Her approach is grounded in active listening, strategic communication, and dynamic collaboration, ensuring that clients receive personalized, solutions-oriented support. Known for her strategic implementation skills, she is adept at navigating complex information, aligning stakeholder expectations, and developing strategies that drive both efficiency and excellence.

Leigh Anne's personal standard of excellence is reflected in her belief that true service means going beyond expectations. She thrives on building authentic connections, delivering insightful solutions, and helping GLA clients achieve their goals with clarity and confidence.