

Methodology Note:

Latino survey conducted 3/10 - 3/20 via phones and text-to-web with 2000 registered voters who identify as Hispanic or Latino nationally. The sample was weighted to match the composition of registered voters modeled as Latino by state, gender, age, education, vote history, voter registration date, VCH score, and 2024 vote recall. The sample was also weighted by age, education, 2024 vote recall by gender, congressional district, and geography, to match the composition of registered voters modeled as Latino in each state with a sample size over 200 and in the Mid-Atlantic region (DE, MD, PA, NJ, and NY) and the Southwest region (AZ, CO, NM, and NV). Language of interview, education and other variables were monitored during the fielding. The survey was conducted in English and Spanish, according to the respondent's preference. MoE is ~2.0 % for the full Latino sample.

Non-Latino survey conducted 3/10 - 3/15 via phones and text-to-web with 400 registered voters who do not identify as Hispanic or Latino nationally. The sample was weighted by state, gender, age, education, self-identified race, and 2024 vote recall. Education and other variables were monitored during the fielding. 200 respondents were in each split sample. MoE is ~4.9 % for the full Non-Latino sample.

Q.23 (SPLIT A) I'm going to read you two statements, please tell me, which comes closest to your opinion, even if neither is exactly right.

	Latino	Non Latino
It's time to get back to basics on immigration. America has always been a land of opportunity, a place where people who work hard have a chance to build a better life. The government's responsibility is to keep our communities safe, so that hardworking Americans can focus on getting ahead. On immigration, that means focusing enforcement where it belongs: on removing violent criminals and serious threats, while protecting the promise and opportunities that define this country.....	64	65
The immigration situation is out of control and requires a strong enforcement response. We need to secure our border and enforce our nation's laws so that we can finally free Americans from the crushing burden of unchecked illegal immigration. Mass deportations are the only way to free up resources, revitalize opportunity, and restore safety- tangible results that put American citizens first.	29	30
(Refused)	8	4
(ref:FUTUREA)

Q.24 (SPLIT B) I'm going to read you two statements, please tell me, which comes closest to your opinion, even if neither is exactly right.

	Latino	Non Latino
It's time to abolish ICE. ICE is supposed to be enforcing immigration law, but instead, is terrorizing people no matter their immigration status, no matter the facts of the law, and no matter the facts of the case. ICE has harmed and killed too many people, including US citizens. We should shut down the agency and replace it with something that will actually keep our communities safe.	58	49

Q.25 Sanctuary cities are places that limit certain cooperation or information sharing with federal immigration authorities, while still enforcing state and local criminal laws.

Some say sanctuary cities make communities safer, because they make it more likely that undocumented people will trust local law enforcement and report crimes.

Others say that sanctuary cities make it harder to keep communities safe, because they block federal immigration enforcement efforts and become a safe haven for undocumented immigrants.
