Reading Plan:

Practicing Gratitude & Contentment

The world trains us to notice what is missing and desire what comes next. Gratitude teaches us to recognize and receive the gifts already before us. Contentment does not mean pretending life is easy or refusing to long for change. It means learning to trust God's presence and provision in seasons of abundance and times of need.

This month, let's practice noticing, receiving, and sharing God's gifts.

Each Weekday:

- Read the assigned passage.
- Watch or listen to the COTC Daily.
- Respond to God in prayer and one faithful action.

Our Daily Rhythm:

Scripture: What does this passage say?
Observation: What do I notice?
Application: How am I invited to respond?
Prayer: What do I want to say to God?
