

Ivy Ang
President, Visionlinc
ivyang@sbcglobal.net
415.425.2838

Brief Bio

Ivy Ang has over 30 years of extensive experience in international business and organizational development. Her professional background includes VP Human Resources roles in the fields of high technology, biotechnology, strategic design consulting and finance. She held VP positions for global industry leaders such as Genentech, AIG, Madge Networks and Landor Associates. She also has extensive experience consulting with for-profit and non-profit organizations.

Ivy is founder and President of Visionlinc, a company dedicated to linking vision, people and strategies. She is a strategic planner and executive coach to CEOs and their teams in creating innovative culture and optimizing people practices to achieve organizational mission.

In her work with executives, Ivy focuses on increasing executive capacity and confidence through inquiry, self-discovery and experiential practices. She has a deep belief in people's innate potential and possibility of transformative behavior to generate extraordinary results. Her coaching emphasis is in linking the executive leadership impact to the business vision and results. Her areas of expertise include strategic vision and planning, leadership and management with emphasis on high performing teams and integrating joy and meaning in our work life.

She has been featured in Fortune magazine and CNBC. She served on several boards including The World Affairs Council, the Mind Body Awareness Project and Forum 21.

Some highlights of non-profit experience:

Bhutan, The Gross National Happiness Project

At the invitation of the Prime Minister of Bhutan, Ivy facilitated a 5-day workshop in Bhutan. The vision of the workshop was to transform Bhutan's educational curriculum to reflect their Gross National Happiness (GNH) principles. Over 200 international and local experts in holistic and contemplative education participated. The successful outcomes included a 25 vision and 5, 3 and 1 year goals to embed the GNH principles in the entire curriculum from k-12 grades. Ivy continues to consult on an as needed basis for this project.

84000.co (Translating the Words of the Buddha) www.84000.co

Ivy serves as the strategic planning consultant and coach for this non-profit global initiative to translate the words of the Buddha and make them available to everyone. Ivy facilitated the 5-day conference in India culminating in the start up of the 84000 initiative's vast 100 Year vision. She continues to be the strategic consultant for their 5-year plan and coach for the executive director. She is a part of the 9 people executive committee team.

Mind Body Awareness Project (www.mbaproject.org) is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping at-risk youths live meaningful lives through emotional awareness and mindfulness meditation. Ivy served on the board and was the coach for the board chair and the executive director for 7 years.

TBRC (www.tbrc.org) is a non-profit dedicated to the preservation and dissemination of Tibetan wisdom heritage. Ivy has been their strategic planning consultant for their vision and strategy in the past 10 years.

Khyentse Foundation (www.khyentsefoundation.org) is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserve and expand Buddhist education and practice across all lineages and traditions. Ivy serves as the strategic planning consultant and coach since 2002.

For profit clients include

A mix of financial, hi-tech, biotech and creative start ups :

Redwood Trust, Anergen, Vaxgen, Novacea, SanofiAvnetis/Bi-Par Sciences, Visionael, HIDlabs, Sapient/Adjacency