

David ASHCRAFT

COMPARISONS

breed self-doubt.

SELF-DOUBT

is the enemy
of leadership.

Great leadership
DOESN'T QUIT
in the middle of a storm.

Great leadership isn't defined by
the expectations of others;

IT'S DEFINED BY YOUR RESPONSE.

APOLLOS

Eloquent speaker,
deeply knowledgeable,
powerful in debate

GREAT ADVANTAGE
or GREAT BENEFIT

Great leadership isn't about being someone else.

It's about being an advantage to others —

EXACTLY AS YOU ARE.

Shift from comparing yourself to others, which just leads to self-doubt, and decide to start being an advantage to those around you by

JUST BEING YOU.

THE GLOBAL LEADERSHIP
SUMMIT