Welcome to the Neighbourhood.

320-328 Bloor Street West presents a rare retail opportunity along one of Toronto's most established and community-driven commercial corridors.

The Annex is a dense, affluent, and highly walkable downtown neighbourhood anchored by the University of Toronto and adjacent to Yorkville. It features strong pedestrian traffic, a high concentration of students and young professionals, and above-average household incomes. Bloor Street West serves as the primary retail spine, supporting a mix of national brands, food & beverage, specialty retail, and service uses. Excellent transit connectivity (Line 1 & 2 subway access) and limited retail vacancy make it a tightly held, high-demand urban retail node.
