Create thriving learning environments with ABM

Today, K-12 schools face more challenges than ever: competition from charter schools and voucher programs, teacher shortages, crowded classrooms, and more. As school costs keep rising, districts need to find ways to do more with less. ABM can help.

For over a hundred years, schools have relied on ABM. Our teams partner with schools to help tackle their biggest problems. ABM commits to schools and communities with top-quality practices and innovative solutions.

ABM offers a complete range of services that work together. Our team works with yours to make your school more dependable, run smoother, and save money.

Value

Our custom services keep your busy schools in great shape. We make it easier for staff to take care of school buildings with the best industry training, processes, tools, and technology. This allows more time for ongoing inspections, team support, and helping students.

Through co-op partnerships with E&I, IGPA, Buyboard, and more, we help schools make upgrades without lengthy RFP processes or large upfront costs.

Financial strategies

We know that schools have special financial challenges. Our financial solutions and planning tools can help schools make upgrades without needing to spend a lot of money upfront.

ABM's expertise and smart financial programs save funds with your current budget. Our long-term improvement plans help you fix problems before they start, saving even more money in the long run. Best of all, you can access these solutions in weeks, not months, through pre-negotiated co-op agreements.
