3. FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

3.1 New Students

- To guarantee the place of the student, payment must be done on time, according to the timing mentioned on the invoice.
- Non-payment will result in the cancellation of the place or in being placed on the waitlist.
- Initial invoice covers Autumn & Winter terms and the refundable deposit.
- A student will only be admitted if the financial conditions are met.
- For subsequent invoices please refer to the Payment Schedule (section 4.).

3.2 Re-enrolment

- Students are automatically enrolled for the following academic year.
- If re-enrolment is cancelled or if the student withdraws after the 1st of April, the fees for the Autumn term will not be refunded.
- A student will only be admitted, and the deposit refunded if the financial conditions are met.
- The school reserves the right to apply a late fee of 3% to overdue invoices.

3.3 Withdrawal

- Parents wishing to withdraw their child for the following academic year must notify the school management by email at head@regentschool.ch by the 31st of March latest.
- Withdrawal by decision of the school (other than expulsion): Fees remain payable for the current term and the following term. This applies where Le Régent determines it is no longer able to adequately support the student's needs — for example, health and wellbeing needs, or academic needs — including where this arises because the school was not provided with accurate or complete information at the time of admission (for example, on health, medical, or learning support forms).
- Unilateral withdrawal by the parents: Fees remain payable for the current term and the following term. This applies where parents remove a student without prior agreement with Le Régent — for example, moving the student to another school, relocating, or a change in family circumstances.
- Withdrawal by mutual agreement between the parents and Le Régent: Fees are payable for the current term only. This applies where both parties agree in advance and in writing to end the enrollment.

3.4 Absence & Premature Departure

- Full fees remain payable in the event of a student's temporary absence, whether requested by the parents or by the school, regardless of the reason or duration.

3.5 Expulsion

- Le Régent takes matters of student conduct seriously. Where a student is expelled following a breach of the school's rules and code of conduct, fees remain payable for the current term and the following term.

9. CONTRACTUAL AGREEMENT AND LITIGATION

- By enrolling or re-enrolling their child and fulfilling the financial obligations, the undersigned parents confirm their agreement with the financial conditions outlined in this document and in the school codes, which are available on the school website.
- Any dispute regarding an invoice must be raised within 30 days of the invoice date. After this period, the invoice shall be deemed accepted and payment shall become due and payable.
- By signing this document, parents agree to abide by these policies. They undertake to uphold this contractual agreement with Le Régent, including provisions related to health care and accident insurance, even after their child reaches the age of majority, and until their child leaves Le Régent.
- Parents receive an updated version of this document each year. The annually updated version is automatically applicable and supersedes any previous versions signed by the parents.
- The contractual agreement between the parents, the child, and the school is ultimately governed by Swiss law. The term “parents” in this document refers to the child’s legal representatives.
- Any disputes between the school, students, and parents shall be resolved by the courts of the Canton of Valais, Switzerland.
