

Reuse & Reduce Waste at Your Business!

REUSE TO REDUCE WASTE

- Incentivize customers and employees to use reusable shopping bags, travel mugs, water bottles, and utensils.
- As required by law, provide single-use utensils and single-serve condiments only upon request.
- Offer recyclable or reusable take-out containers.
- Reuse packaging and shipping materials.

Reusable Foodware Mini-Grants: A Simple Switch, Big Impact

UP TO $500 FOR ALAMEDA COUNTY FOOD BUSINESSES!

StopWaste is making it easier for local food businesses to switch to reusable dine-in foodware with mini-grants and hands-on support through the ReUse Assist Program.

- Get up to $500 worth of reusable foodware—no reimbursements, no red tape.
- They will help you choose the right items, then take care of ordering and delivery.
- You save money on disposables, improve the customer experience, and show your commitment to sustainability.
- All items meet standards set by the Alameda County Department of Environmental Health.

Customer Spotlight Wingen Bakery & Restaurant Leads the Way in Sustainability

A local favorite is one of this year's StopWaste Environmental Leadership Award winners—and a standout sustainability partner of Livermore Sanitation.

Owners Aimee and Bryan Wingen have made waste reduction a core value of their operations:

- Well placed and clearly labeled recycling, organics and garbage bins in front and back of house.
- Ongoing staff training to ensure proper sorting.
- Reusable foodware for dine-in, minimal packaging for take-out.
- A proactive approach to learning—reaching out to LSI and City staff whenever questions arise.
