

Resource List for Livermore Teachers

Compiled by Livermore Sanitation

Livermore Sanitation - <https://www.livermoresanitation.com/>

Offers free waste reduction and recycling education presentations and resources for Livermore students. Contact Sheila Fagliano, Sheila@LivermoreSanitation.com or call 925-583-5317.

Alameda County Industries - <https://alamedacountyindustries.com/>

Learn what happens to recyclables after collection and watch videos of the sorting process.
<https://alamedacountyindustries.com/alameda/commercial/resources/videos/>

Stop Waste - <https://www.stopwaste.org/>

Provides free:

- Field trips for 4th grade classes to the irecycle@school Education Center in San Leandro
- Student action projects, curriculum and videos
- Sheet mulching projects for fifth and sixth grade classes
- Green school operations and maintenance support
- Contact schools@stopwaste.org or 510-891-6500.

Altamont Education Advisory Board - <http://www.altamonteab.org/>

Offers grant funding for educational programs focused on waste reduction, recycling, and environmental stewardship.

Earth 911 - <https://earth911.com/>

Search for recycling locations, explore recycling guides, and learn about sustainable living practices.

The Story of Stuff Project - <https://www.storyofstuff.org/>

Features educational films, lesson plans, and activities that encourage environmental awareness and responsible consumption.

Bag It (Movie) - <https://youtu.be/iQU68cdbFWg?si=i7hPRyZNcTpEeU1c>

Award-winning documentary that explores the impacts of plastic bags and single-use plastics on people and the environment.

Junk Mail Reduction Campaign - <https://bayarearecycling.org/stop-junk-mail/>

Recycling junk mail is good, but it's even better to stop getting it.

Go Green Initiative - <https://gogreeninitiative.org/>

Training tools to create a "culture of conservation" in your community.

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency - <https://www.epa.gov/students>

Homework resources, ideas for school projects, lesson plans, games and quizzes.

Waste Free Lunches - <https://www.epa.gov/students/pack-waste-free-lunch>

Tips and resources for reducing lunch waste through reusable containers and sustainable habits.