Lord God of heaven and earth,
you revealed your only begotten Son to every nation

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Epiphany Proclamation AD 2026

While a day like Christmas is fixed in our minds and in the calendars as 25th December, many of the important liturgical celebrations of the Church year move (based upon the date of Easter Sunday). Easter Sunday changes each year and is always the Sunday after the "Paschal Full Moon" and thus falls between 22nd March and 25th April. In ancient times, before calendars were common (or Church newsletters were published), most people did not know the dates of the major liturgical celebrations. As not attending Mass on a Holy Day of Obligation was (and remains) a mortal sin, it was important to know the dates. Thus began the tradition that on Epiphany Sunday, the upcoming major celebrations were "proclaimed" by a Deacon following the proclamation of the Gospel. We don't expect you to recall all the dates but this simple liturgical action links us with countless Catholic brothers and sisters across the centuries who have gone before us. Like the "Epiphany Blessing" (with chalk), the Liturgy Office of England and Wales encourages the restoration of the "Epiphany Proclamation" "its revival in many places would be opportune since it serves to make the connection between the Epiphany and Easter, and orientates all feasts towards the greatest Christian solemnity".

- Epiphany: Tuesday, 6th January
- Ash Wednesday: 18th February
- Easter Sunday: 5th April
- Ascension of the Lord: Thursday, 14th May
- Pentecost Sunday: 24th May
- Corpus Christi: Sunday, 7th June
- First Sunday of Advent: 29th November

The online Rosary Group meets from 8:00am to 8:20am weekdays on Zoom. ID: 833 1504 6319 Password: Rosary

The Rosary and Divine Mercy Group meets in SsP&J each Monday at 1:45pm. Divine Chaplet, Rosary, cup of tea.

The Repositories are open before and after their respective Masses on Sundays.

Bible Alive

New Year, New Resolution? Just ten minutes a day reflecting on the scriptures is a great way to develop your understanding of the faith and can be a really positive way to start your day. Bible Alive, a subscription magazine or app, gives a commentary on the day's gospel-reading relating it to everyday life. Free copies for January and February are available in the narthex of each church.
