Ready for more murderous fun?

From the makers of the hit improvised whodunnit Murder, She Didn't Write comes a range of workshops designed to spark creativity, build confidence and unleash imaginations

Whether you're completely new to improv or seasoned performers looking to explore genre storytelling, our workshops can be tailored to your needs.

Workshop Options

Introduction to Improv

Perfect for beginners or corporate & community groups looking to try something new. Participants will learn the core principles of improv: listening, spontaneity, teamwork and trust, through games, laughter and playful exercises. It is confidence-building, creative and full of joy.

Advanced Improv & Storytelling

Take your improv to the next level. This session dives deeper into character, narrative and emotional connection, helping participants create rich, satisfying scenes. It is ideal for theatre groups or those with some experience who want to sharpen their performance skills.

The Art of the Improvised Whodunnit

A unique workshop exploring the crime-solving genre that Murder, She Didn't Write is famous for. Learn how to balance mystery and comedy, build suspense and create an engaging story on the spot, complete with suspects, sleuths and shocking twists.

What Participants Will Gain

- Increased confidence, communication and creativity
- Tools for collaboration, storytelling and quick thinking
- A huge sense of fun and achievement with no scripts, no pressure, just play
- Insight into the world of improvised theatre from professional performers

Each workshop can be tailored in length, focus and group size, from a 90-minute taster to a full-day deep dive.
