

Suspect Wanted For Domestic Violence Attack

UNEEDUS (March 12, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office is asking the public to be on the lookout for a suspect wanted in connection with a domestic violence attack earlier this week.

Brice Anthony, 30, is wanted for an incident that began Tuesday, March 10, where he's accused of kidnapping an ex-girlfriend from her home in Uneedus and holding her against her will for more than 24 hours. During the ordeal, the victim, who had a protective order against Anthony, reported that he strangled her. And during her escape, she reported being repeatedly punched and then kicked in the head after she fell to the ground.

Late last night, on Wednesday the 11th, Anthony returned to the home, but got away from responding deputies.

Anthony is currently wanted on one count each of Domestic Abuse Battery, Domestic Abuse Battery (Strangulation), and False Imprisonment as well as two counts each of Simple Kidnapping, Violation of Protection Orders and Resisting Arrest by Flight on Foot.

If you know where Anthony is, please call 911 if in Tangipahoa Parish. If you're outside of the parish, you can contact our Criminal Investigations Office at 985-902-2088.
