

Three Arrested in Narcotics Operation Investigation

ROSELAND (March 26, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) has arrested a father and son, as well as a convicted felon, and discovered multiple illegal drugs in a narcotics operation investigation.

Travis Allen Gunter, 48, has been booked on one count each of Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule I narcotics, Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Paraphernalia, Illegal Carrying of Weapons While in Possession of CDS, Resisting an Officer, and Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule II narcotics, along with two outstanding warrants.

His son, Travis Michael Gunter, 26, has been booked on one count each of Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule II narcotics and Possession of CDS.

Jervenski "Duck" Johnson, 32, has been booked on one count each of Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule I narcotics, Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Paraphernalia, Illegal Carrying of Weapons While in Possession of CDS, Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule II narcotics, and Convicted Felon in Possession of a Firearm.

Back in February, TPSO Narcotics detectives began investigating activity at a home on Bennett Road in Roseland following citizen complaints. Through surveillance and investigative efforts, the team confirmed illegal drugs including meth, heroin and fentanyl were being sold at the location.

Several weeks later, TPSO Narcotics detectives, assisted by the Hammond Police Department, served a case-related arrest warrant on the elder Gunter at the home, who already had outstanding narcotics-related warrants. During the arrest, detectives discovered suspected heroin/fentanyl, methamphetamine, marijuana, and evidence of drug distribution. In addition, detectives found a loaded rifle.

The TPSO wants to thank the community for alerting us to this criminal activity and we encourage anyone who sees something suspicious to say something about it.
