

TPSO Investigating Roseland Shooting

ROSELAND (June 25, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO), on behalf of the Roseland Police Department, is investigating a shooting incident that left one victim hospitalized.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 24, a local hospital alerted the TPSO that a 21-year-old man showed up to the ER with multiple gunshot wounds. He remains in critical, but stable condition today.

The investigation determined the shooting occurred on Sawdust Lane in the Town of Roseland. At this time, it appears the victim met a group of individuals at the location and, at some point, shots were fired. No additional injuries have been reported.

While deputies are actively working several leads in this investigation, they are asking for any additional information the public may have. Tips can be shared with our Criminal Investigations Division at 985-902-2017.

If you'd prefer to share information anonymously, you can do so through Crime Stoppers of Tangipahoa's tip line at 1-800-554-5245 or visit www.tangicrimestoppers.com and click on the P3 Tips icon or Submit A Tip!
