

TPSO Seeking Identities, Locations of Several Suspects

HAMMOND (September 18, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) is asking the public for assistance identifying and locating several suspects wanted in a variety of crimes.

- On the first of the month, TPSO began investigating a residential burglary on West Hoffman Road in Hammond where the back door was forced open and several items stolen. Around Noon, a neighbor's camera caught the suspect vehicle described as a blue and/or silver, 4-door sedan. The make and model are unknown as are suspect descriptions. If you have information about where this vehicle could be located, or who may have been in it, contact our Criminal Investigations team at 985-902-2088.
- On Tuesday, June 16th, a black female in a white gown is seen on surveillance video at the Sibley Road Dollar General in Tickfaw stealing laundry detergent and leaving the business in a brown four-door Honda. This is a republication at the request of Retail Crimes Detective Earl McFarland, who has recently returned from retirement. If anyone can identify this suspect, please contact 985-514-8181.
- Angela Clayton Schwicardi, 48, is wanted in connection with two cases over the summer involving Domestic Abuse Battery, Illegal Possession of Stolen Things and Unauthorized Use of Access Card. Detectives have been unable to locate Clayton who is known to stay in the Pasqua Road area of Ponchatoula. If you have information about where Clayton is, contact our Criminal Investigations team at 985-902-2088.

If you'd prefer to share information anonymously, you can do so through Crime Stoppers of Tangipahoa's tip line at 1-800-554-5245 or visit www.tangicrimestoppers.com and click on the P3 Tips icon or Submit A Tip!
