

TPSO Seeking Identities, Locations of Several Suspects

HAMMOND (October 30, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) is asking the public for assistance identifying and locating several suspects wanted in a variety of crimes.

- The first case goes back to May where Kyren "Capo" Swift, 25, is accused of holding two people at gunpoint inside a mobile home on Alligator Drive while two other suspects wearing ski masks stole several items totaling a few thousand dollars. No one was injured. Swift is currently wanted on one count of Armed Robbery in connection with this case. Anyone with information about where Swift can be found can contact the TPSO Criminal Investigations Division at 985-902-2088.
- The next case is from October 17th when staff at the Dollar General Store on Morris Road in Hammond reported two suspects sneaking out the back door of the store with a basket full of stolen items. Surveillance video shows the suspects were two black men likely in their 20s. One of them was wearing a McDonald's employee uniform and the other was wearing black pants, a backwards black ball cap, and a black shirt with a notable character logo on the front. Any information about who these suspects are, and/or where to find them, contact Retail Crimes Detective Earl McFarland at 985-514-8181.
