TPSO Seeking Identities, Locations of Several Theft Suspects

HAMMOND (November 20, 2026)- The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) is asking the public for assistance identifying and locating several suspects wanted in a variety of shoplifting cases from across the parish.

- On October 28, three black females are seen in the Dollar General Store on Airport Road in Hammond. One pays for all of the merchandise in her cart and gets into a black Nissan sedan. The other two walk out of the store without paying for any items in their carts and get into the same black Nissan. All three suspects then leave together.

- On November 7, surveillance video at the Dollar General on Highway 440 in Kentwood shows a black male stealing toiletries and a vacuum. The same suspect returned on November 10th with a black female to steal more items before leaving in a dark gray Honda sedan.

- Then this past week on Tuesday, November 17, a black male and black female are seen stealing a large amount of laundry detergent from the Dollar General on Pumpkin Center Road in Hammond.

TPSO Retail Crimes Detective Earl McFarland is investigating all of these cases and asks anyone with information about who these suspects are or where they can be found to contact him at 985-514-8181.

If you'd prefer to share information anonymously, you can do so through Crime Stoppers of Tangipahoa's tip line at 1-800-554-5245 or visit www.tangicrimestoppers.com and click on the P3 Tips icon or Submit A Tip!

Tips submitted directly through Crimestoppers may be eligible for a cash reward.

TPSO Public Information Office
Contact Information- pio@tpso.org