CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Founded by Navy veteran John Hansen, Aether Creative Studio reflects a journey of service, adaptability, and creativity. After serving during the Captain Phillips era, John was selected for a high-performance reduction in force and chose to pursue new goals as a civilian. Transitioning from military precision to design innovation, he's worked in tech startups, contributed to design systems, consulted for growing product teams, and now leads a studio that blends art, business, and technology to solve today's digital challenges.
