

WATER LANTERN FESTIVAL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Water Lantern Festival Brings Communities Together for an Evening of Reflection, Connection, and Light

The Water Lantern Festival, a nationally recognized outdoor experience, is bringing its signature evening of reflection, community, and celebration to cities across the country. Designed for all ages, the festival invites guests to gather with family and friends to create meaningful memories as thousands of floating lanterns illuminate the water at sunset.

Upon arrival, attendees enjoy a vibrant and welcoming atmosphere featuring live music, local food vendors, and interactive activities. As the evening unfolds, guests personalize their lanterns with messages of hope, love, remembrance, gratitude, or intention. At sunset, participants gather along the water's edge to release their lanterns together, creating a peaceful and visually stunning display of light.

Known for its inclusive and family-friendly design, the Water Lantern Festival attracts a diverse audience of couples, families, friend groups, and individuals seeking a shared experience that blends celebration with reflection. The event's atmosphere transitions naturally from joyful and social to intimate and meaningful, making it both uplifting and memorable.

"The Water Lantern Festival creates a beautiful space where people can slow down, connect, and share something personal in a collective way," said Nate Sorensen, Event Director. "It's an experience that reminds us how powerful it can be when communities come together."

With hundreds of events produced nationwide and more than two million attendees to date, the Water Lantern Festival has become the most recognized lantern experiences in the United States. The festival continues to receive high ratings from attendees for its organization, atmosphere, and overall experience.

Environmental stewardship remains a core commitment of the event. A dedicated cleanup team ensures that all lanterns and materials are collected following the launch, preserving the natural beauty of each venue.
