PERFORMERS

FIONA O'SHEA

Fiona O'Shea is a wild-hearted troubadour from the sun-drenched landscapes of Queensland's Sunshine Coast—her music a raw, untamed tapestry woven from threads of country, rock, and unbridled spirit. With a voice like a thunderbolt of authenticity, she blurs genre boundaries, crafting songs that pulse with truth and emotion. Beginning her journey with just three chords and a boundless passion, Fiona channels influences like Stevie Nicks, Sheryl Crow, Miranda Lambert, and Lainey Wilson into a sound that's both nostalgic and fresh. Her debut EP Rose made waves on the AMRAP charts, while Build Me A House stormed into the iTunes Country Singles Chart at #10. Collaborations with producer Peter Koppes and her band, The Passengers, have elevated her artistry to new heights. With major releases such as Falling Off Getting Back On, Black Jack, and 2024's radio favourite Boho Hillbilly, Fiona continues to carve her place in Australia's vibrant country-rock scene. On stage, she transforms every performance into a living, breathing story—drawing audiences into tales of open roads, broken hearts, and wild adventures across the Outback. At the Water Lantern Festival, Fiona's music will shimmer with that same free-spirited light.
