A Message From the Team

September has a way of reminding us how quickly the year moves. Between busy schedules, changing routines, and full calendars, it can be easy to rush from one thing to the next without stopping to enjoy what's right in front of us.

This month, we're making a little more room for connection. For catching up with an old friend, planning something special with family, saying yes to a spontaneous adventure, or simply putting the phone away and being fully present with the people around us.

Some of the best memories aren't the ones we plan months in advance—they're the simple moments we choose to show up for.

So this September, find your people, make the plans, and enjoy the moments worth remembering. ✨

Warm Wishes,

We Asked:

What's your favorite movie you could watch over and over?

Morgan Oaks

Event Operations Lead

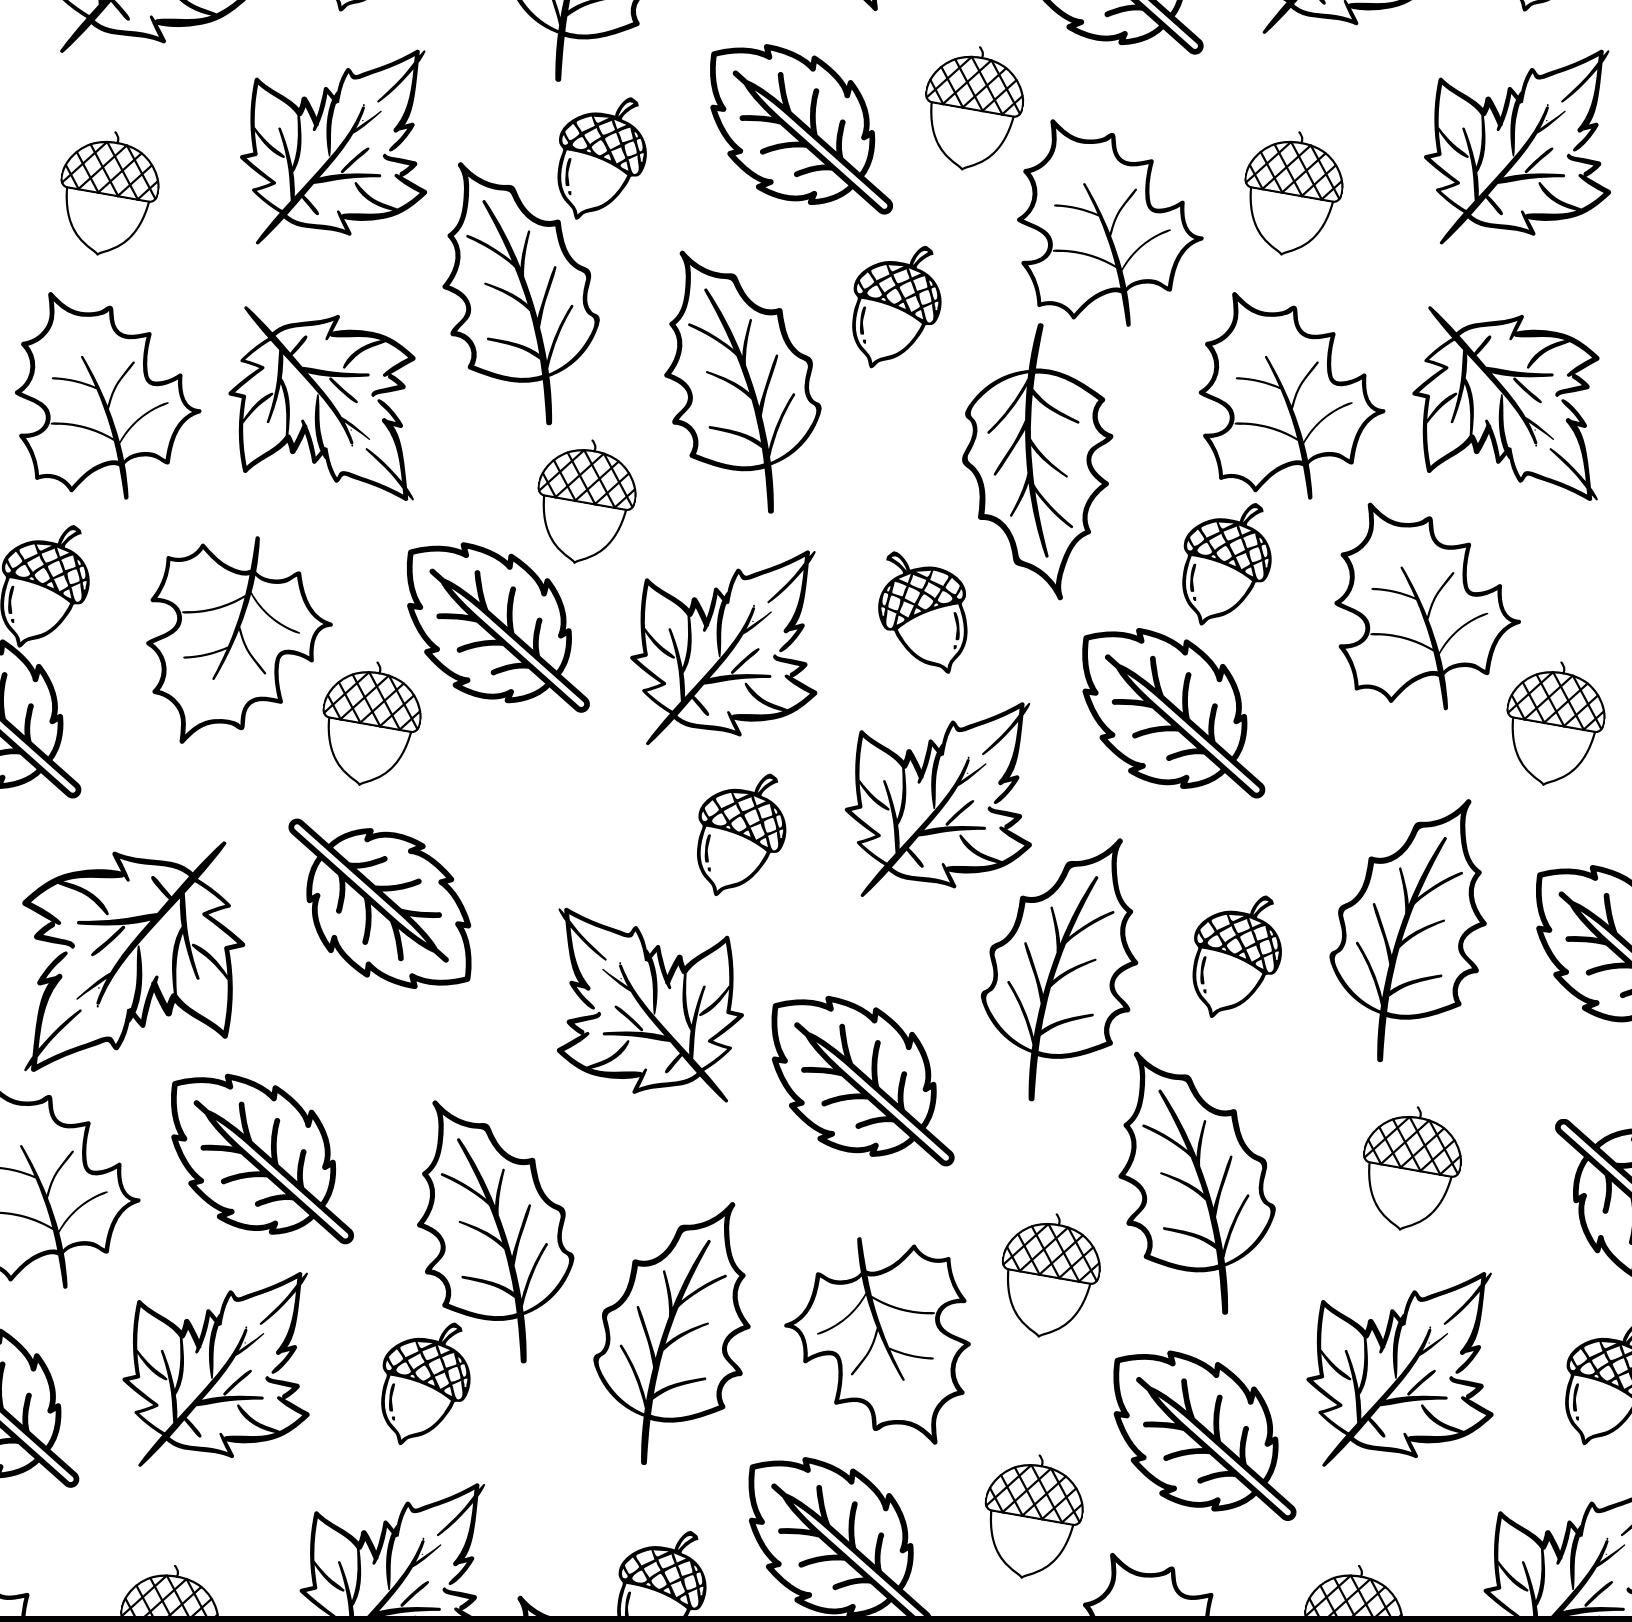

"A movie I could watch over and over is definitely a toss-up between How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days and Cars. They're completely different movies, but I'll happily rewatch them anytime they're on"

Joey Mcknight

Event Producer

"The movie I could watch over and over again is It's a Wonderful Life. It's one of those timeless movies that I always enjoy coming back to, no matter how many times I've seen it."

HAPPY FALL

SIMMER POT

INGREDIENTS

- 1-4 orange slices
- 3-4 lemon slices
- 4 slices of apple
- 1 teaspoon whole cloves
- 1 star anise
- cinnamon sticks
- Sprigs of Fresh Rosemary
- Bay Leaves
- Fresh Water

DIRECTIONS

- Fill a large pot with all of the ingredients listed above and cover with water.
- Place the pot on the stove and bring to a simmer over low heat.
- Add more water every few hours as needed to cover the ingredients. Do not let the water level go down too far or the fruit will burn.
- You can use your simmer pot for a several days after making it, after that discard the ingredients and start new.

A photograph of a Water Lantern Festival at dusk. Numerous small, illuminated lanterns float on a calm body of water, reflecting the soft light of the sunset. A group of people stands on the sandy shore to the right, watching the lanterns. The sky is a mix of purple, pink, and blue.
