MATCH PREVIEW

OPENING REDEMPTION OPPORTUNITY

The Portland Thorns will kick off the 2026 NWSL season this Friday, March 13 on the road at Audi Field against Washington Spirit in a heavily anticipated rematch of the 2025 NWSL Semifinal.

Just four months after the heartbreak of elimination in the nation's capital, the Thorns return ready to seek redemption and motivated to start the new season off on the right foot.

SOPHIA WILSON RETURNS

The Thorns got a huge offensive boost with the return of USWNT star forward Sophia Wilson to the active roster last week following successful completion of her return-to-play (RTP) protocol.

Wilson, who missed the entirety of 2025 on maternity leave and triggered her 2026 player option in December, contested 15 minutes in a 5-1 preseason win at Providence Park against C.F. Monterrey. It was Wilson's first time playing competitive minutes since giving birth to her daughter Gianna, aka Gigi, in (month) and the first time she's fielded for the Thorns since the NWSL quarterfinal vs Gotham FC on November 10, 2024.

Wilson has been pivotal to Portland's recent success, serving key roles in their 2022 NWSL Championship and 2021 NWSL Shield victories. In addition to combining for 44 goals and 15 assists in league play, Wilson's individual NWSL accolades include being the 2022 NWSL and NWSL Championship MVP, a 3x time NWSL Best XI First Team selection (2022, 2023, 2024), 2022 U.S. Soccer Player of the Year (2022) and a 2024 Women's Balon D'Or finalist. In short, Wilson brings back elite offensive firepower to a Thorns side looking to build off last year's third-place league finish.

For Friday's match against the Spirit, if she comes on, it'll be Wilson's first league appearance at Audi Field since September 2024 and will be looking to get her first goal at the venue since the 2022 NWSL Championship final, where she scored the opening goal and game-winner against Kansas City Current (2-0 W) to hoist its third NWSL Championship trophy.

2026 ROSTER

As they were throughout 2025, the Portland Thorns begin the 2026 NWSL season as the youngest team in the league, posting an average age of 24.47.

22 players from 2025's contracted roster are back for 2026, including goalkeeper Mackenzie Arnold, defender Reyna Reyes, midfielder Jessie Fleming and forward Reilyn Turner. Players like defender Jayden Perry and forward Pietra Tordin are preparing for their sophomore seasons after making their mark in 2025. Forwards Julie Dufour, Caiya Hanks and Morgan Weaver are scheduled to return from their SEI knee injuries later this year.

German international defender Marie Müller will join the Thorns on Friday after moving to the active roster last week alongside Wilson, bringing back major defensive reinforcement to the Portland backline. Müller was sidelined in 2025 with an ACL injury but saw her return to competitive action with Portland in last week's win vs Monterrey. Like Wilson, it was Müller's first time playing since the 2024 quarterfinal match at Gotham.

Several new faces have joined the squad as well, with the Thorns bringing in eight players for the new season. Longer term signings include defender Carolyn Calzada, midfielder Cassandra Bogere, midfielder Shae Harvey and forward Maddie Padelski.

The Thorns have also brought on goalkeeper Mackenzie Wood on a season-long loan from Chicago Stars. Three players signed short-term contracts after impressing in preseason: midfielders Jennie Immethun and Renee Lyles (both through 2026) and goalkeeper Erin McKinney (through March 2026). Immethun and Lyles featured in all of Portland's preseason contests, with Lyles combining for four preseason goals (three vs Monterrey at Providence Park, one vs Angel City at the Coachella Valley Invitational)

Sam Coffey, USWNT midfielder who captained the Thorns in 2025, left for Manchester City during the offseason for an undisclosed transfer fee. Defender Daiane was sent out on loan to Monterrey through July 16, 2026. Other departures include defender Nicole Payne, defender Kaitlyn Torpey, midfielder Laila Harbert, midfielder Naomi Powell and midfielder Olivia Wade-Katoa.

THORNS APPOINT NEW HEAD COACH

On Wednesday, March 4, the Thorns officially announced that Swedish native Robert Vilahamn had been appointed as the new Head Coach. He is the seventh head coach in Thorns history, succeeding Rob Gale (2024-25) and will be on the sidelines this Friday at Washington after landing in D.C. at around midnight of Thursday, March 12. While he began intemplating himself virtually after his hire, his arrival in D.C. provided him the opportunity to hold individual in-person discussions with staff and players throughout the day while also co-leading his first training with the Thorns (which battled the elements as snow fell during their session) and speaking with media to discuss his arrival and philosophy.

Vilahamn arrives to Portland after most recently serving as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season.

MATCH PREVIEW

Prior to his stint in England, Vilahamn was a member of both men's and women's sides at BK Häcken (Sweden), helping both sides clinch qualification to UEFA competitions and Swedish Cups.

A former striker himself who began his footballing career at age 17 in the Swedish top-flight, it was with his final club, Ytterby IS, that Vilahamn took his first steps into the managerial world by assuming the role of player-coach, helping the team secure back-to-back league promotions in 2008 and 2009.

PUSHING THE TEAM FORWARD

While Vilahamn will be on the sidelines this Friday, it cannot be overstated how important assistant coach Sarah Lowdon — who led the team as interim head coach throughout the preseason — was to the process and pushing the Thorns along as they navigated preparations for the 2026 season.

Lowdon led in the interim between December 2025 and as late as Wednesday, March 11, helping the team push forward for the upcoming season while Thorns leadership searched for the next head coach. As Thorns President and General Manager of Soccer Operations Jeff Agoos has addressed publicly, the Club was fully confident in Lowdon's ability to lead the squad until a coach was appointed given her coaching experience.

Lowdon — who is working towards her UEFA A Pro License and is the youngest female to earn a U.S. Soccer Pro License — has been an assistant coach for the Thorns since 2024. She served as an assistant for Houston Dash in 2022 and 2023, and helped the Dash to a fourth place finish to secure their first-ever playoff appearance.

NATIONAL TEAM DUTY

The Thorns had 11 players get called up for their respective national teams for the February/March FIFA Women's international window. Goalkeeper Mackenzie Arnold remains with the Australian Women's national team as they compete in the AFC Asian Cup through March.

Midfielder Olivia Moultrie won her first She-Believes Cup with the USWNT, featuring in the contests against Argentina and Colombia (who brought on Thorns teammate and forward Valerin Loba). Midfielder Jessie Fleming and forward Mimi Alidou linked up with Canada to also compete at this year's SBC.

Defenders Carolyn Calzada and Jayden Perry, midfielder Shae Harvey and forward Pietra Tordin joined the USWNT U-23's for their training camp, getting two matches in against the Mexico U-23's.

Defender Reyna Reyes and the senior Mexican national team won in dominant fashion against Saint Lucia in Concacaf W Qualifiers and also beat Brazil in an exhibition match. Forward Deyna Castellanos and Venezuela also faced off against Brazil in a friendly, securing a victory against their CONMEBOL rival and getting valuable competition against Liga MX Femenil sides Club América and Cruz Azul.

On the other side of the globe, defender Isabella Obaze and Denmark continued their 2027 FIFA Women's World Cup qualifying campaign posting a win against Serbia and drawing Italy to coast to the top of their group.

2025 SEASON IN REVIEW

With the youngest squad amongst those competing in the 2025 NWSL season, the Thorns surpassed the expectations placed upon them by those on the outside, fighting to a third-place finish in league play, moving up three spots in the table compared to their 2024 finish (6th).

Additionally, the Thorns had amassed at least 40 points and at least 11 wins for the first time since their 2021 NWSL Shield-winning campaign.

USWNT midfielder Olivia Moultrie had a career season with the Thorns in 2025, leading the team in goals scored (8) and setting a new NWSL teenage goalscoring record (14) to earn a place on the NWSL's Best XI First Team. Midfielder Sam Coffey — who in her lone season as the Thorns captain before leaving for Manchester City — was also selected to the Best XI First Team after serving as an anchor in defensive midfield while also contributing two goals and four assists to push the Thorns forward.

Additional standouts include midfielder Jessie Fleming who led the team with five assists, defender Reyna Reyes who continued solidifying herself as one of the league's best fullbacks and forward Reilyn Turner who scored a single-season career high five league goals. Rookies Pietra Tordin (F), Caiya Hanks (F) and Jayden Perry also made a splash in their first season as professionals.

The effort of the young 2025 Thorns squad in league play earned them the right to host a playoff game against San Diego Wave at Providence Park, with Moultrie setting up Turner to score the decisive game-winner in extra time and send the Thorns through to their first NWSL semifinal since 2023.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPEARTIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
