MATCH PREVIEW

CASCADIA RIVALRY HOME OPENER

For the first time since their inaugural 2013 season, the Portland Thorns will host rival Seattle Reign FC for a NWSL home opener at Providence Park.

The 44th edition of the Cascadia Rivalry will see the Thorns look to get their first home opener win since 2023, currently boasting a 10-1-1 record.

Additionally, the Thorns look to extend their five-game regular season undefeated streak (3W, 2D) at home against Seattle, with Portland having also won the last four home meetings overall across all NWSL competitions.

Portland dominated Seattle in their previous meeting last August, a 4-2 performance in front of 21,811 fans with Portland goals from Sam Coffey, Reilyn Turner, Reyna Reyes and Pietra Tordin.

With such a highly anticipated matchup to welcome Thorns back to NWSL action, crowd numbers are trending towards a possible new attendance record. The current record for a Thorns home opener attendance is 19,857 in 2024 against Gotham.

MOULTRIE'S RISING LEGACY

If there's one player on the Thorns roster who is poised to continue breaking out as a rising international star, it's 20-year old USWNT midfielder Olivia Moultrie.

After a career 2025 season that saw her lead the team with eight goals and earn a selection to the NWSL's Best XI First Team, the Thorns have made it clear that Moultrie will be a foundational piece for the team's long-term future success, locking her down with a contract extension through 2029 during the offseason.

With an elite ability to create in the midfield and score goals, Moultrie picked up right where she left off in 2025, scoring the game-winner in 0-1 road win against the Washington Spirit last week for the 2026 NWSL season opener.

Last year, she broke the league's record for most goals by a teenager (14) and is on the line for another milestone against Seattle. With one more goal, Moultrie (20 y) would become the youngest player in NWSL history to score 20 goals in her career. Sam Kerr currently holds the record at 21 years old and only Sophia Wilson and Trinity Rodman — the NWSL's top stars — have achieved the feat before the age of 24.

With an opportunity to set the tone for 2026 at home against Seattle and to continue writing her name in the NWSL history books, expect Moultrie to come out ready to make an impact.

BAPTISM BY FIRE

Having only been with the team for less than 48 hours, new head coach Robert Vilaham got the win in his NWSL coaching debut against Washington last week and extended the first-year Thorns head coach unbeaten debut record to 5W-0L-2D. It was also the first time that the Thorns, at Audi Field, had won at Washington since 2022 and recorded a shutout since 2021.

What he's described as the shortest preseason of his career, the Swedish native arrived midnight on Thursday after finally getting his visa and experiencing travel delays on his way to meeting the team in DC for the season opener. He held individual meetings all day with players and staff while also having to weather snowfall during his first training with the team and making time to address the media. Despite the obstacles, Vilaham made it an effort to showcase to the organization that he is here to make an impact and was awarded with a three important road points against the 2025 NWSL finalists.

And he has made it an effort to consistently credit the hard work done by the Thorns coaching staff to prepare the team during the preseason and to help the Thorns come out of Washington, D.C. with a road win.

Led by First Assistant Coach Sarah Lowdon (who served as the interim head coach throughout the offseason and preseason), the Thorns coaching staff worked incredibly hard to push the team forward as preparations for 2026 continued.

Now, with the continued support of Lowdon and the rest of the coaching staff, Vilaham will prepare for his first ever match at Providence Park against Laura Harvey's Seattle Reign.

THE OFFICIAL RETURN OF SOPHIA WILSON

Forward Sophia Wilson made her longly anticipated return to league action against the Spirit, coming on as a second half substitute (with the sold-out crowd at Audi Field standing up to applause as she came back on) to help the Thorns close out the 0-1 road victory.

Wilson, who has contributed 44 goals and 15 assists in her regular season career, returned to the pitch for NWSL action for the first time since November 2024 in the quarterfinal at Gotham.

The Thorns will continue to monitor Wilson's progress as she continues her return to full-time minutes, with hopes that she can come onto the pitch and contest more time in front of a packed Providence Park against Seattle.

MATCH PREVIEW

GROWING IMPACT

Pietra Tordin was a standout rookie for the Thorns last season, scoring the second-most goals for Portland in 2025 with four and earning back-to-back Rookie of the Month honors in June and August (the 2025 NWSL break took place in July).

Now in her sophomore season, Pietra Tordin is back on the pitch making impacts. She recorded her first NWSL assist when she laid the ball off for Moultrie to score the game winner against Washington.

DEFENSIVE DOMINATION

Portland's defense put on a very strong display last week in Washington to shut down their potent attack, limiting the Spirit to just one shot on target.

Reyna Reyes stood out with her performance, winning her battles against Washington's Trinity Rodman, and M.A. Vignola continued to showcase why the Thorns could not turn down the opportunity to bring her on, going 4/4 on tackles, posting four clearances and leading the team with five interceptions.

Sam Hiatt donned the captain's armband for Portland for the first time and the game-winner doesn't happen if not for Isabella Obaze's effort to reclaim the ball and send the ball up the pitch to find Pietra Tordin.

KEEPER DEBUT

Goalkeeper Morgan Messner made her NWSL regular season debut with the Thorns last weekend, recording her first league clean sheet against the Spirit.

As a result, Messner joins only Bella Bixby and Nadine Angerer to record a clean sheet in their regular season debut.

WELCOME TO THE NWSL

Portland saw three debutants in its victory against Washington last week.

Cassandra Bogere, the Norwegian youth international midfielder who joined on a transfer from SK Brann, got the start in her league debut, contesting 61 minutes.

Rookies Shae Harvey (M) and Maddie Padelski (F) also made their professional debuts, both coming into the match in the 61'.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPEARTIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
