MATCH PREVIEW

STATEMENT WIN

The Portland Thorns are high in confidence after coming off a historic 2-0 win over Seattle Reign last Friday in the 44th edition of the Cascadia Rivalry. It was also the sixth straight regular season home match between both sides that Portland has not lost (4W, 2D).

Despite being down to nine players, Portland were able to shutout Seattle's efforts and keep them at bay in front of a home opener record crowd of 21,321.

It was only the fifth time in NWSL history that a team received two red cards in the same match and the first time for the Thorns in a regular season contest (Last: 2021 Challenge Cup vs KC), making what the Thorns accomplished even much more impressive.

IMMEDIATE IMPACT

Forward Pietra Tordin has hit the ground running in 2026, making immediate offensive impact. She scored the game-winner against Seattle and assisting forward Reilyn Turner's goal to double the lead.

Tordin was also the orchestrator for Olivia Moultrie's game-winning goal at Washington Spirit, with Moultrie returning the favor for Tordin vs Seattle.

SECURE HANDS

One player who has been getting a lot of praise is goalkeeper Morgan Messner, who has kept two consecutive clean sheets in her first two career regular season appearances.

It is the first time since 2022 and second time in club history that the Thorns start the year with two consecutive clean sheets. It is also the first time in club history that the Thorns won their first two matches of the regular season with clean sheets.

BACK ON THE PITCH

Defender Marie Müller – who was on SEI with an ACL injury for 2025 – made her return to competitive action against Seattle, coming into the match as a second half substitute to help the Thorns keep out the Reign offense and maintain the clean sheet.

Forward Sophia Wilson also made an appearance at Providence Park in the victory against Seattle, her first home league match for Portland since returning from maternity leave.

A WEEK OF QUICK TURNAROUNDS

After their hard-fought win, the Thorns now prepare for a series of quick turnarounds for Week 3, beginning with a midweek road contest against San Diego Wave before traveling back up to Portland to host Kansas City Current on Saturday.

PLAYOFF REMATCH

The Thorns will face the Wave for the first time since their 2025 quarterfinal meeting at Providence Park.

Both sides were held scoreless through regulation and it was Reilyn Turner who would break the deadlock to send the Thorns onto the semifinals and end San Diego's 2025 season.

REGULAR SEASON MEETINGS

While Portland do lead the series against San Diego across all NWSL competitions (6W-4L-4D), their record in regular season action has not gone primarily in their favor (1W-3L-4D).

In 2025, the Thorns drew 1-1 in both league contests against San Diego and on both occasions, late goals from Portland salvaged a point.

A win on the road for Portland would give them their first regular season away win against San Diego and their second win overall in league play (First: July 5, 2024, 1-0 W).

HISTORIC START?

Should Portland manage to get the win at San Diego, it would be the first time in club history that the Thorns start the regular season 3-0-0.

The 2023 and 2015 seasons are the only other times that Portland began 2-0-0, with the third match ending in a draw on both occasions.

MILESTONE WATCH

With her next goal, midfielder Olivia Moultrie (20) would become the youngest player in NWSL history to score 20 league goals. Sam Kerr currently holds the record at 21 years old and only Sophia Wilson and Trinity Rodman have achieved the feat before the age of 24.

UNAVAILABLE

Following their red cards vs Seattle, both midfielder Cassandra Bogere and defender Reyna Reyes will be serving out their one-match suspension for Portland's contest vs San Diego.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPEARTIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
