MATCH PREVIEW

TOP OF THE TABLE

The Thorns enter their final match of Week 6 riding high after their impressive midweek 2-0 win vs San Diego Wave saw Portland jump into the top spot of the NWSL standings. That victory saw Portland extend their current unbeaten run to four matches (3W, 1D) and remain unbeaten at home seven matches in a row dating back to September 2025 (6W, 1D, all comps).

DEFENDERS BEWARE

Forward Sophia Wilson has managed to score in two consecutive matches and her second goal of the year was one fans have been waiting for because it was her first goal in front of Thorns fans at Providence Park since November 2024.

Portland are currently the NWSL's top offensive team with 12 goals and 9 assists in seven matches. Leading the way are forward Pietra Tordin and midfielder Olivia Moultrie, each with three goals and two assists. Forward Reilyn Turner also has three goals, two coming off assists from defender Jayden Perry. Midfielder Mimi Alidou comes into the Chicago match with two consecutive assists, both on Wilson goals.

MARIE'S JOURNEY BACK

Wednesday's game-winning goal was nothing short of euphoric for defender Marie Müller. After missing the entirety of the 2025 season with an ACL injury – which she unfortunately picked up during her first senior German national team camp – Müller has worked incredibly hard to return to the pitch and did so alongside Wilson in the 1-0 road victory at Washington Spirit. The goal, which was her first in the NWSL, was an amazing reward for her to celebrate her effort to return and compete for a spot in a competitive roster.

PROTECTING POINTS

Portland's defense also deserves its fair share of praise for its contributions to start the year. The win on Wednesday saw the Thorns become the first team to shutout San Diego's offense since their season opening loss to Houston and snap their club record five-game win streak.

Goalkeeper Mackenzie Arnold made a number of big saves to record her second clean sheet (Portland's fourth, which is second-most in the league) while the Thorns backline combined for a season high 55 duels won and 15 tackles won. Their defensive performances have been big, especially at home. The Thorns are perfect with shutouts in their three home wins this year. The Thorns have scored first in every match but one (3-1 L @ SD) and the Thorns defense has been big in keeping Portland in a position to walk away with points, ranking amongst the top five in several defensive actions including a league high 218 clearances.

MOULTRIE'S MILESTONES

With an appearance on Sunday at Chicago, Moultrie will become the youngest player to reach 100 NWSL games played. She would break the record at 20 years old, beating the record set by Washington's Trinity Rodman (23) last weekend.

It's worth noting that Moultrie's last visit to Chicago also saw her set a NWSL record, scoring a free kick banger to become the highest goalscoring teenager in NWSL history (14) just days before her 20th birthday. Earlier this season, she became the youngest player in NWSL history to score 20 goals, ending a record held by Sam Kerr since 2017.

SERIES NOTABLES

The Thorns enter Sunday's match having won seven of their last eight meetings against Chicago, and have not lost on the road to the Stars in their last four visits dating back to May 2022 (2W, 2D).

As two of the league's original franchises, the Thorns and Stars have a storied history of competition, one that Portland has largely dominated with 17 wins and 12 draws in 34 total matches across all NWSL comps. Historically, homefield advantage has not favored the Stars as the Thorns also boast a 6W-2L-8D record in Chicago.

WELCOME, MATTIAS!

The Thorns announced on Saturday that it had brought on Mattias Gustafsson as its new goalkeeper coach after interim goalkeeper coach Amrik Hare reached the end of his tenure.

Gustafsson is the first coaching hire under Thorns Head Coach Robert Vilahamn and arrives after a six-year stint with Sweden's BK Häcken Women, where he worked alongside Thorns Head Coach Robert Vilahamn between 2021-2023.

Gustafsson helped Häcken clinch three UEFA Women's Champions League appearances as well as their run to the final in this year's UEFA Women's Europa League Final. He also supported the team in their 2020 and 2025 league championship winning seasons.

ANOTHER YEAR IN ROSE CITY

On Friday, it was announced that goalkeeper Bella Bixby had inked a one-year extension with the Thorns through 2027. While she may be unavailable for action as a result of a season-ending knee injury that she got in preseason, Bixby is stepping up for her community off the pitch. She was announced as Portland's representative for the 2026 Lauren Holiday Impact Award and chose to support Friends of Trees, a local non-profit dedicated to expanding and caring for the urban forest across the Pacific Northwest through volunteer-powered tree plantings and stewardship efforts to restore neighborhoods, parks and natural spaces in urban and underserved communities.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPEARTIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
